MADRID, May 26.—Pierre Védérine, the French aviator, landed in Madrid this morning, winner of the Paris-to-Madrid 75 miles race, after the most daring and difficult flight in the history of aviation.

From Burgos, where he landed yesterday, he flew today the 140 miles to Madrid, over crags and chasms, maintaining an altitude of near 6000 feet to clear the peaks of the mountains, some of which exceed 5000 feet in height.

Though there were 20 entries in the contest, but three started. The accident at the start, when Minister of War Bertheaux was killed and Premier Monis wounded, deterred many. Gilbert and Garros are stalled in the mountain fastnesses between Madrid and the sea, and it was considered doubtful if they could finish in the time limit.

Védérine, on landing at the Getafe Aerodrome, jumped from his aeroplane and flung himself on the ground to rest. A frantic crowd soon rushed up, however, and bore the victorious aviator on their shoulders to a short, crowded triumphal procession. On reaching the judges' platform he was showered with roses and kissed repeatedly by women.

Later on, complaining that he was still numb from his flight, he was removed to an infirmary, where he received medical attention and a short, much-needed rest. On reappearing at the aerodrome the Frenchman smilingly delivered the messages which he had brought with him from Paris and was congratulated on his magnificent flight by the Civil Governor of Madrid on behalf of King Alfonso.

Védérine left the suburbs of Burgos in ideal weather this morning and flew over Aranda de Duero, 45 miles south of Burgos, at a good height and great speed.

Crosses High Mountains.

At Boquevilles, where the airman was greeted by a great crowd of wildly shouting peasants, Védérine bucked down to the task of crossing the dreaded Sierra Sierra, which is 4000 feet high. Higher and higher he climbed, until he had attained an altitude of 6000 feet. The aviator then, straight as an arrow, flew over the crags and snow-capped peaks until he reached the immense plains of San Augustin.

Having left the mountain ranges behind him, Védérine dropped closer to the earth and finally reached the aerodrome at Getafe, where he alighted with the greatest ease, amid the plaudits of thousands of enthusiastic spectators.

Most Dangerous Flight.

With the exception of the crossing of the Alps, by Chavez, on Sept. 23, 1910, a feat which ended in his death, the third stage of the aviation race from Paris to Madrid for the Petit Parisien prize of $20,000, and $10,000 additional offered by Spanish aero clubs, proved to be the most severe test to which the aeroplane has yet been subjected.

Gilbert, Garros and Védérine began the third stage from San Sebastian early yesterday morning.

The 206 miles of the route is almost entirely over desolate ranges, varying from 1000 to 5000 feet in height, where a fall meant death, and to make a fresh start would be impossible.

Gilbert fought the first recorded battle of the air. A large, fierce eagle swooped down to give battle to the new rival, the airman. Manipulating the levers as best he could, Gilbert, with his left hand, gripped in his pockets for a revolver. He fired two shots at the eagle, which dropped behind.

Forced to Descend.

Védérine passed over Quintanapalla and above the city of Burgos at a great height, but later was forced to descend. He telegraphed saying that he could not proceed for some hours and the club authorized an extension of the time for the completion of the race.

Védérine said he, like Gilbert, was attacked in mid-air by a large eagle. The attack occurred while the aeroplane was passing over the Sierra de Guadarrama, a chain of mountains in Castile, one of the peaks of which attains an elevation of 7000 feet.

The eagle, which was a huge creature, seemed furious and swooped down again and again, trying to reach the airman's face. Védérine's greatest fear

ROUTE OF AEROPLANE RACE,

OF RED EAGLE FOR
ADOLPHUS BUSCH

St. Louisian Honored by Kaiser
Because of Gift for Harvard Germanic Museum.

The insignia of the Order of the Red Eagle, conferred on him by Emperor William of Germany, is to be presented to Adolphus Busch of St. Louis Friday afternoon at the Plaza Hotel, New York. The Red Eagle is a Prussian order of high rank, and Busch was made a member by the Emperor as King of Prussia.

The decoration was conferred on Busch for establishing the Germanic Museum at Harvard University, to which he donated $350,000 less than a year ago. Emperor William was interested in the movement and the plans for the building have been submitted to him for approval.

The white enameled cross, with the figure of a red eagle in the center, the insignia of the order, reached St. Louis Thursday. It was received by Max von Loehr, German Consul here, and in turn delivered to a representative of Busch. The formal presentation to Busch was to be made in New York as soon as the badge could reach him. He left St. Louis two weeks ago, and is now on his way to his estate in Germany.

The cross, carrying with it membership in the Order of the Red Eagle of the second class, was sent by Emperor William to the German Ambassador in Washington, and was then forwarded to the St. Louis consul.

Order of the Red Eagle is conferred for acts of merit, and only a few residents of America have been so honored. In Germany the second-class membership is conferred only on officers bearing the rank of lieutenant-general. The third-class membership may be conferred on major-generals or commanders of regiments.

On the visit of Prince Henry of Germany to the St. Louis World's Fair, he decorated some residents of St. Louis with insignia of the order of the third class. Among these were D. R. Francis and Secretary Walter B. Stevens, then Chief of Police, and Jere Cookley, then stationmaster at the Union Station.

GLACE BAY, Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, May 26.—Communication between the wireless station here and Dakar, on the west coast of Africa, has been achieved in the record time of one hour. The message was flashed to the Eiffel tower in Paris from this station, and from there was relayed to the Dakar station in the French African possessions, all within 50 minutes.

So successful was the experiment that it is now announced that the British dependencies will be linked together by wireless and plans to this end are now being made. Between seventy and eighty new stations will be required to put this globe around the world.

MINISTER GRANT
GUILTY OF HERESY
BUT IS PAROLED

Presbyterian Assembly Tells Him to Recant and Convince His Presbytery.

TAUGHT WRONG DOCTRINE

He Said Ananias Died of Heart
Disease and That Savior
Went to a Party.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 27.—The Rev. Dr. William D. Grant of Northumberland, Pa., has been found guilty of heresy by the commission which heard the charges made against him. The commission reported its findings to the Presbyterian General Assembly this morning.

The commission found that Dr. Grant "taught doctrines contrary to the word of God in the Bible and the Presbyterian Confession of Faith." He is held to be guilty under the rules of the Presbyterian book of discipline, and the commission recommends that Dr. Grant be suspended from exercising the functions of a minister of the Presbyterian Church until such time as "he can convince his own Presbytery, that of Northumberland, that he has renounced the errors he has been found to hold and to satisfy the Presbytery of his purpose to no longer teach them."

A motion to accept the report and confirm the judgment of the commission was put to a vote in the assembly and was carried overwhelmingly without debate. There were only a few scattered "noes."

Dr. Grant is present. The report of the commission was read. Before a vote was called for, his chief counsel, Dr. J. Gray Bolton of Philadelphia, asked to be allowed to read a statement for Dr. Grant. Dr. Bolton not being a member of the assembly, his request was declared out of order. The statement was in the nature of an affirmation of faith in the doctrines of the church.

Though the decision was at first a crushing blow to friends of Dr. Grant, the judgment which leaves it up to his own Presbytery to reinstate him, and body having already acquitted him once and being obviously favorable to him, somewhat took the sting out of the apparent harshness of the verdict. It was pointed out by his friends that there is nothing to prevent Dr. Grant from appealing to his Presbytery at his next meeting and, by making a statement recanting any views that might be taken against the basic doctrines of the church, be reinstated within a short time. The word "heresy" was not used in the report of the commission.

Among the statements attributed to the clergyman were these:
Jesus did not climb to the topmost pinnacle of the temple.
The Lord did not part the waters of the Red Sea. It was dry washed.
Jesus did not plan his crucifixion. A mob did it.

Jesus did not even exist. He was a myth.
Eve did not fall because the serpent tempted her. It was her own sin.
Divine wrath did not end the mendacious careers of Ananias and Sapphira.

Miracles were not due to supernatural causes. Altogether natural.
Uzzah was not struck dead by God. It was heart disease.

WILLIAM LANYON
PUTS $1,000,000
INTO MAY WHEAT

Buys the Market and Has Shorts on the Run to Deliver.

DEAL TO END WEDNESDAY

Buys 500,000 Bushels in One Day and Expects to Sell Line to Millers.

William Lanyon, a capitalist with offices in the Pierce Building, is engineering one of the biggest wheat deals which has been attempted since the days of the great plungers, John W. Kauffman and Corwin H. Spencer.

More than 1,000,000 bushels of May wheat, valued at nearly $1,000,000, are involved in transactions in which Lanyon, through his brokers, has played a conspicuous part in the last few days. Lanyon is on the bull side of the market and has been buying up all the wheat in sight in the St. Louis market, and at the same time has been keeping the wires hot between St. Louis and the Chicago Board of Trade.

Deal Closes Wednesday.
As all of the deliveries must be made to Lanyon by noon next Wednesday, the last day of the month, the traders who have sold the wheat are making heroic efforts to obtain a sufficient quantity of the grain to fill their contracts with him. If they cannot get the wheat by the end of the month they will have to pay Lanyon the difference between the price at which he bought it and the market price of the day.

Lanyon has been represented in the deal largely by the Hubbard-Moffitt Commission Co. Arrayed against him on the short side have been some of the leading cash grain and elevator interests.

One 500,000 Bushel Deal.
Lanyon Thursday had an offer of 500,000 bushels of cash wheat. He took it all and paid for it.

Since then 250,000 bushels more have been tendered to him. He paid cash for that also.

Only sales have been made of this wheat for the reason, it is said, that Lanyon will not sell or settle contracts except at one closing quotation on the May option.

Recently, it is said, some big shorts tendered to Lanyon 100,000 bushels of No. 2 red wheat from public elevators. His expert grain inspectors, it is reported, got the grain to deliver, they were below grade. The shorts were forced to go elsewhere for their supplies.

Lanyon said Friday he expected his deliveries before the last day of May to exceed 1,000,000 bushels, and he was prepared to pay cash for it. When asked if there was a chance for a squeeze of shorts in the closing days of the option, he smiled.

If there are any "big short" contracts outstanding," he said, "and they haven't got the grain to deliver, they will have to pay the pipper."

Expected to Sell to Millers.
Lanyon expects to dispose of the surplus by merchandising it to the milling trade.

Lanyon broke into the limelight on "Change a year ago when he accumulated a heavy line of May corn. On a not wind scare the price rose 4 cents a bushel over night. Then suddenly the heat wave was broken and the weather turned ideal for the crop.

Corn started on a decline from 64 cents in May. It never stopped until it sold at 40 cents in November.

Lanyon, it is said, was forced to take deliveries in May of close to 500,000 bushels. He merchandised his holdings.

DESERTED WIFE WHO BLEACHED
HER HAIR TO TRAP HER HUSBAND

MRS. PEARL GRETH.

BLEACHES HAIR
IN DAY TO CATCH
ERRING HUSBAND

Applies 3 Pounds of Peroxide and Begins Hunt for Him and Divorcee.

Mrs. Pearl Greth of Nashville, 37 years old, is a premeditated blonde. She bleached her handsome chestnut hair for detective purposes before she followed Henry Christian Greth, her husband, and Mrs. Anna Robertson, divorced wife of a Nashville physician, to St. Louis. They were arrested together Thursday evening at 301 Magazine street.

Pair Are Reconciled.
Mrs. Greth and her husband went Friday to Prosecuting Attorney Sidener's office. She was determined at first to prosecute, but Sidener urged a reconciliation, and left the two to talk it over.

After half an hour Greth announced that he would return to Nashville with his wife and give up his affinity, and that Mrs. Greth would not prosecute Mrs. Robertson either. Both were released.

Mrs. Greth doesn't like being a bleached blonde and intends to let her hair resume its original color, although she fears it will take a long while.

Greth left home five weeks ago. He told his wife he was going to Chicago to get a better position as upholsterer. He left $100 with his brother George to be given to his wife as she and their three-year-old son Frederick needed it.

Postcard Aroused Suspicion.
Mrs. Greth's suspicion was aroused when she saw a postcard from her husband at her brother-in-law's home postmarked St. Louis.

She inquired at the place where her husband had worked, and found that he had often been seen when he left work with Mrs. Robertson. Inquiry showed that Mrs. Robertson had boarded with a Mrs. Bell.

"I went to Mrs. Bell and told her I was a friend of Anna's and had important information for her," Mrs. Greth told a Post-Dispatch reporter Friday. "She said she would let me know if she heard from Mrs. Robertson."

Two weeks ago she got a letter saying Mrs. Robertson was at 1028 South Eighth street in St. Louis, and that she was to be married the next day to Henry C. Greth.

"I almost fainted when I read that letter. Then I determined on revenge."

"I bleached my hair in a single day. It required three one-pound bottles of peroxide of hydrogen, and I made a thorough job of it. But when I got to St. Louis and inquired at the South Eighth street address I found my husband and Mrs. Robertson had moved, and I was unable to learn where they were."

Had Luggage Locked Up.
"So I reported the matter to the detective here and asked them to find out where the luggage had been taken to. Then I went back to Nashville. They notified me finally that my husband was on Magazine street, and I came back to St. Louis."

"After all, dying my hair didn't do any good. The minute my husband saw me at headquarters he said 'Hello, Pearl.' Then he looked at my hair and said, 'What did you do that for?'"

FARMERS CAUSE
ARREST OF AGENT
WHO DIDN'T PAY

Many Complain to Postal Authorities When No Return Is Made for Produce.

Angry farmers and creamery proprietors, unable to learn what became of the butter and cheese which they say they sent to Charles E. Hoffmann, caused Hoffmann's arrest Friday. Deputy United States Marshal Williams caught him, after a four days' search, at 704 North Fourth street, where Hoffmann has been getting his mail.

Complaints from numerous sources have reached Postoffice inspectors during the past four months, from farmers who say they sent their products to Hoffmann and got no return from them.

The farmers have reported that Hoffmann wrote to them, telling them he was a merchandise broker and could get a better price for them than they were getting by dealing with commission men direct. He solicited a sample shipment, and several of those who responded made the sample shipments large ones.

Seal Torn of Cheese.
E. J. Laatch of Split Rock, Wis., reported that he sent Hoffmann a solid ton of cheese, for which he hoped to get at least $250. He got not even an acknowledgment. The total amount figuring in the complaints is said to exceed $1000.

Hoffmann, who lives at 4143 Botanical avenue, was not there when Deputy Marshal Williams sought him. He appeared Friday morning at the Fulton Market, which he had given as his address, and was arrested there. Inspector Rose says the Fulton Market management had no knowledge of Hoffmann's transactions.

Hoffmann's brother, F. W. Hoffmann, who is in the commission business, called at the Marshal's office to see about giving bond for him, but did not qualify. His bond was fixed at $1000.

The body of a man was found in the Mississippi River at the foot of Locust street Friday by Peter Roedel of 216 Arsenal street. A purse containing 1 cent was found in a trousers pocket.

In a memorandum book in his coat pocket was written: "My name is Jeff Smith. I live at 2311 Market street. I have a brother at Benton, Mo., and a sister living in Little Rock. She is worth $20,000 or $30,000, but that does not do me any good."

The man apparently was 40 years old, weighed 150 pounds, and was 5 feet 6 inches tall. The body had apparently been in the water several days.

CAR TURNS WRONG
WAY AND KILLS
WOMAN IN TRACK

Miss Worman Thought Bellefontaine Trolley Was Going Other Route Which It
Should, but Motorman
Failed to Close Open
Switch and Tragedy Followed.

SHE WAS RETURNING FROM EARLY MASS

Car Was Running at Such a
High Rate of Speed That It
Went 108 Feet Beyond the Frog and 20 Feet After Hitting the Woman.

Returning from early mass, Miss Minnie Worman of 3430 Chippewa street met almost instant death at 5:30 a. m. Friday under the wheels of a Bellefontaine car at Virginia avenue and Meramec street. The failure of the motorman to see an open switch was responsible for the accident. Miss Worman was 35 years old.

Although Miss Worman's body was severed, the prayer book and rosary she carried were untouched. The crew of the car was arrested.

Miss Worman's daily custom for years had been to attend 6 o'clock mass at St. Anthony's Church, Compton avenue and Meramec street, after which she went home for breakfast before starting to her work in the Hamilton-Brown shoe factory.

Switch at Corner.
Grand avenue car, coming from the sheds north of Virginia avenue, turned west into Meramec street, Bellefontaine cars, running north along the same track, turn east into Meramec street.

Miss Worman passed that car daily and knew just how the cars ran. As she approached, a Grand car took its track and stopped in Meramec street just west of Virginia. Behind it was a Bellefontaine car.

Presumably supposing this car would turn east, Miss Worman stepped onto the track behind the Grand car. The switch at the Y is not automatic, but must be thrown by the motorman with an iron switchbar. George H. Thomas of 3513 Pulaski street, motorman of the Bellefontaine car, did not throw it. His car ran 108 feet past the frog before it hit Miss Worman, who was crossing Meramec street from north to south. The accident happened in front of 3308 Meramec street, two doors west of the corner.

Car Running Fast.
After passing over Miss Worman the car ran 20 feet further, south, with its speed, until it crashed into the rear of the Grand car.

The conductor of the Grand car jumped, but William Manning of 4137 South Compton avenue, the motorman, did not see the Bellefontaine car approaching. The shock threw him against the woodwork in front of him and his face was cut and bruised.

Thomas has been a motorman four years and this was his first accident. "I don't see how I failed to throw that switch," he told a Post-Dispatch reporter after the accident. "I never failed before to throw it. Somehow I seemed to have the notion that it was closed and that I would turn east all right."

It was necessary to Jack the car up to remove Miss Worman's body. It was taken to the morgue. Her name and address were found in the prayer book.

The first intimation of the accident to reach Mrs. Rosella Worman, widow mother of Miss Worman, was a police man's blunt message that her daughter had been killed by a street car and that the body was at the morgue. Miss Clara Worman, another daughter, lives with her mother and strove to comfort her.

Went to Early Mass.
Two daughters of Mrs. Worman are nuns in the Convent of the Good Shepherd, and Miss Minnie Worman had at one time considered taking the veil. Although she decided not to, she was a woman noted in that neighborhood for her goodness and piety; and whatever the weather, she never was known to miss early mass.

Motorman Thomas was taken to the Wyoming Street Police Station with Felix L. Pouyer of 443 Williamson road, conductor of the car. Thomas showed much distress over the accident.

Soon after the accident, 18 members of the Meramec Improvement Association, who are petitioning the President Woelke of the Police Board, asking that a policeman be stationed permanently at that corner to protect people and property. W. A. Aylward, of 3312 Meramec street, circulated the petition.

Motor Shakes the Earth.

DOYLE, Cal., May 26.—The shock of a motor car early this morning caused considerable commotion throughout Lassen county. The shock when the blazing machine struck Tule Mountain was felt for 10 miles, causing the cars to tremble on though from an earthquake.

DE LA BARRA SWORN IN TO SUCCEED DIAZ

New Provisional Executive, in Open Letter, Tells the People He Will Not Be a Candidate for President or Vice-President at the Next Election.

$60,400,000 IN GOLD
FOUND IN VAULTS

Riches Are Turned Over to the Incoming Government—Mexico City Begins Its New Era Quietly and Merchants Resume Business.

MEXICO CITY, May 26.—Francisco Leon de la Barra, Foreign Minister and former Ambassador at Washington, took the oath of office as Provisional President of the Republic of Mexico today in succession to President Diaz, who resigned yesterday. He will act as the chief executive until a general election can be held.

Senor de la Barra was escorted from the National Palace to the Chamber of Deputies, where the oath of office was administered, by the members of the staff of former President Diaz. The staff officials had resigned days ago, but had asked permission to escort the Provisional President to the scene of his inauguration.

The new chief executive was accompanied by Gen. E. Rascon, who took the oath as Minister of War earlier in the day.

U. S. Is Represented.

Most of the distinguished personages in the capital were present, including the diplomatic corps in full regalia, headed by the American Ambassador, Henry Lane Wilson, the dean of the corps.

Owing to the fact that Mexico City was orderly throughout the night, despite the magnitude of the crowd which celebrated the change in administration, business men this morning prepared to resume their occupations on a normal basis.

Shutters were removed from the windows for the first time in two days. A large crowd gathered about the Chamber of Deputies cheering for Senor de la Barra and Gen. Madero while the oath was being administered.

It is now regarded as certain that Alfredo Robles Dominguez, Gen. Madero's representative here and who is virtually the military commander of the Federal district, will not find it necessary to call in the revolutionary forces from the cities of Cuernavaca and Puebla for the purpose of maintaining order. The police and soldiers are acting under the direction of Senor Dominguez with as much readiness as if they had never known another superior officer.

Diaz Is Better.

Gen. Diaz's condition was reported as improved this morning. The inflammation in his face is said to have subsided greatly and the fever to have disappeared. Members of the retired President's family expressed the belief that he would be able to sail for Europe from Vera Cruz by the last of the month.

Gen. Enrique Torralba, sub-director of the Military College, today was appointed Chief of Staff to Provisional President de la Barra.

Before resigning his office yesterday as Minister of Finance, Jose Yves Limantour exhibited to Jaime Guera, the new Subsecretary of the Treasury, $60,400,000 in gold in the vaults of the Treasury. Senor Limantour turned over all the Government funds in his possession, taking Senor Guera's receipt.

The passing of President Diaz last night was one of the most dramatic events in the recent history of Mexico.

Kept in His Palace.

The venerable Diaz was confined to his palace, which was hedged about with strong guards of mounted police and soldiers, while across the Zocalo machine guns were masked ready to deal with any further outbreak such as that of the night before.

Popular excitement was at a high pitch but was held in check by the patriotic appeals of Madero's personal representative, Senor Dominguez, for the maintenance of order and the dignity of the cause. Crowds surged about the Chamber of Deputies awaiting the words of Diaz's final action.

Inside the chamber there was an impressive scene as President Diaz's letter, finally and completely relinquishing the reins of power, was presented and accepted, followed by the presentation and acceptance of Vice-President Corral's resignation.

Crowd Hears News.

Immediately word was carried to the waiting crowds outside, which broke into wild demonstrations of enthusiasm, accompanied by the clanging of the great bell in the Cathedral and a salute of cannon.

Burgling masses of people paraded the streets, carrying banners or emblems of Madero with wreaths of flowers and other symbols of the final success of the revolution. Here and there were scattered affrays, but in the main the demonstration was one of enthusiastic approval and rejoicing.

Francisco Leon de la Barra took up the reins of government in an open letter addressed to the Mexican people, acknowledging his election as Provisional President and declaring his purpose not to be a candidate for either President or Vice-President when a general election should be called. The entire cabinet of President Diaz followed the action of his chief in presenting their

THE NEW PRESIDENT OF MEXICO: RECORD AND RESIGNATION OF THE OLD

THE letter of resignation sent by President Diaz to the president of the Chamber of Deputies reads:

MEXICO CITY, May 26.—Sir: The Mexican people, who generously have covered me with honors, who proclaimed me as their leader during the war, who patriotically assisted me in all works undertaken to develop industry and the commerce of the republic, establish its credit, gain for it the respect of the world and obtain for it an honorable position in the concert of nations, that same people, sir, has revolted in armed military bands, stating that my presence in the exercise of the supreme executive power is the cause of this insurrection.

I do not know of any fact imputable to me which could have caused this social phenomenon. Though not admitting that I may be unwittingly culpable, such a possibility makes me the least able to reason out and decide my own culpability.

Therefore, respecting as I have always respected the will of the people, and in accordance with Article 82 of the Federal Constitution, I come before the supreme representatives of the nation in order to resign, unreservedly, the office of Constitutional President of the Republic with which the national vote honored me, which I do with all the more reason since, in order to continue in office it would be necessary to shed Mexican blood, endangering the credit of the country, dissipating its wealth, exhausting its resources and exposing its policy to international complications.

I hope, gentlemen, that when the passions which are inherent to all revolutions have been calmed, a more conscientious and just study will bring out in the national mind a correct judgment, which, when I die, I may carry graven on my soul as a just estimate of the life which I have devoted and will devote to my countrymen.

With all respect.

CITY CLUB HEARS OF INDETERMINATE FRANCHISE PLANS

J. L. Hornsby, in Shirt Sleeves, Advocates Limited Grant to a Coattless Audience.

KEEPS CONTROL FOR CITY

Public Service Commission Points Municipal Ownership Is Possible Under It.

Joseph L. Hornsby, chairman of the Public Service Commission, speaking in his shirt sleeves to a shirtless audience at the City Club at luncheon Friday, advocated the indeterminate franchise, continuing during good behavior, as the solution for present franchise problems.

Before the luncheon began J. W. Allison, who presided, asked who was uncomfortable to remove their coats, and nearly all, including the chairman and speaker, did so.

Hornsby outlined the advantages and disadvantages of short term and long term franchises for public utilities. He held that short term franchises were preferable to long ones, but that they had some drawbacks.

One of these drawbacks, he said, was that they tend to high rates and poor service, since the officials of a company holding a short term franchise are apt to feel that they have only a certain limited period in which to obtain a return on their investment. The long term, or virtually perpetual franchise, he feared to be defective, in that it led to disregard of the public's rights.

"The indeterminate franchise," he said, "is practicable, and has proved a success where it has been tried. It does not mean public ownership, although public ownership is a possibility under it."

The indeterminate franchise is subject to revocation by the city for due cause, such as violation of the conditions on which it was granted. The city can then take over the property by repaying the company its actual investment, and can operate the property itself or lease it to another company.

The speaker outlined the duties of a public service commission, saying it had to provide against the deterioration of plants through the failure of a public service company to set aside a sufficient fund for maintenance, and that it had to protect the public against poor service and overcharge.

Vedrine Wins Air Race After Record Cross-Country Fly

was that his attention would be diverted and that it would cause him to lose control of the machine. Finally the aviator outmaneuvered and lost his feathered foe by swiftly dipping and rising to new levels.

Speaking of his fight with the eagle, Gilbert said it was one of the most exciting incidents of his life. The bird swooped down upon him viciously and struck at him with its powerful beak. It succeeded only in carrying off his cap. He then fired at it, and he believes that one of the shots wounded the bird. Gilbert stated he is a mountaineer and has been in the mountains of San Sebastian. The nature of the ground makes a restart practically impossible and it is believed he will be forced to abandon the contest.

The Paris-to-Madrid race was begun May 21 under the auspices of the Petit Parisien, which offered a prize of $20,000. In addition, the Spanish Aero Club gave prizes amounting to $10,000, and King Alfonso offered a special prize for the fastest speed over the Spanish section. The journey was divided into three stages, Paris to Angoulême, Angoulême to St. Sebastian and St. Sebastian to Madrid, a total distance of about 600 miles.

Twenty machines were entered for the race, but as a result of the tragic accident when the start was made from the Issy-les-Moulineaux aviation field, which resulted in the death of M. Berteaux, the French Minister of War, and the serious injury to Premier Monis, all but three of the aviators withdrew. Of these three, Pierre Vedrine, who reached the Spanish capital this morning, was the favorite.

He covered the first stage of the contest, 220 miles, in 3 hours and 35 minutes, breaking all records for a long-distance cross-country flight. On the second stage, between Angoulême and St. Sebastian, Vedrine had a narrow escape from death. One of the planes of his machine grazed the peak of a huge rock near the Spanish town of Fuenterrabia. Although the plane was bent, Vedrine continued his flight and safely reached St. Sebastian. The distance of the second leg of the contest was about 300 miles.

Aeroplane Record Is Broken.

POITIERS, France, May 26.—Lieut. Menard, who is making a tour of France in a new army aeroplane with a passenger, arrived here from Moulins. The distance is 600 kilometers (373 miles) and the flight occupied nine hours and 15 minutes. This beats all records with passengers for distance and duration.

Demonstration at Funeral of Minister Killed by Aeroplane.

PARIS, May 26.—The funeral of Henri Maurice Berteaux, the French Minister of War, who lost his life in the aeroplane accident that marred the opening of the Paris-to-Madrid aviation race Sunday, was made the occasion of an impressive national demonstration here today. Gen. Francois Gohran today accepted the portfolio of the Ministry of War, in succession to the late M. Berteaux.

INTENSE HEAT ON SUMMER'S HOTTEST DAY KILLS DRIVER

Many Prostrations as Mercury Mounts and No Relief Is Promised.

POLICEMAN A VICTIM

Falls in Street While Sending in Alarm From Box on Chestnut Street.

Friday's heat, the most intense and oppressive of the present early summer, killed one man and caused a number of prostrations.

Henry Dank, 60 years of age, of 842 Itasca street, a driver, died Friday while being taken to the city dispensary after being overcome by heat. He weighed 230 pounds.

Dank was a driver for the D. I. Bushnell Feed Co. He was driving on the Levee near Locust street when he became weak. He got out of his wagon, locked the rear wheels and sat down beside the wagon. He was unconscious when found by Patrolman Letter, who called an ambulance to send him to the dispensary.

Patrolman Hero Tiffany of the Central District, was overcome while he stood at a police telephone box at Thirteenth and Chestnut streets, sending in a report on the disappearance of a child. Policemen are required to wear their heavy blue coats closely buttoned through the summer. Owing to the earliness of the season, the summer caps have not yet been provided, and perspiration streams continually from beneath the heavy winter caps.

Patrolman Tiffany was carried into an office near the corner and revived. He was then sent to his home, 1504 Marcus avenue.

Mrs. Lute Lohewick, 35 years old, was oppressed by the heat in her home, 1021 North Eighteenth street, and went into the back yard to get a breath of air. As she sat down on a bench, she fell over backward. Her head was badly cut and she was picked up unconscious. She was sent to the city hospital.

Eugene Meinhardt, 51 years old, of 422 South Third street, was running a lawn mower at Compton and Copelin avenues. He went across the street to Reservoir Park to rest for a few minutes, and was found there unconscious. He was taken to the hospital.

"BUTTER'S" WIFE IS CHASED BY "BUTTER'S" "PET"

Mrs. Donaldson, Fleeing From Photographer, Is Pursued by Mrs. Ridgely.

JUDGE INSTRUCTS JURY

Each Side Has One Hour to Sum
Up in Case of Praying Promoter.

Judge McQuillin instructed the jury Friday as to the law in the case against Aaron B. Donaldson of 8700 Barnhart avenue, accused of defrauding James H. Downs of Assumption, Ill., and his daughter, Mrs. Ora Belle Ridgely, in a mining promotion scheme. The case was argued for two days, and it was expected that the case would go to the jury about 3 p. m., allowing for the noon recess. The penalty is from two to five years in the penitentiary.

Mrs. Donaldson did not appear in the courtroom after her exciting experience Thursday afternoon when a photographer and Mrs. Ridgely, one eager to photograph her and the other to see what she looked like, pursued her from the Four Courts. Finally she threatened Mrs. Ridgely with arrest and Mrs. Ridgely turned back.

Judge McQuillin refused to instruct the jury that if Downs was influenced in buying mining stock by the fact that he expected Donaldson to marry Mrs. Ridgely, then Donaldson was not guilty. This instruction was requested by Thomas J. Rowe, Donaldson's lawyer.

Judge Gives Instructions. The jury was told that if it believed Donaldson had made false representations to Mrs. Ridgely or other persons, it must consider them only in the light of Donaldson's intent to defraud Downs, if he had any, and not as evidence in themselves of guilt.

The other instructions were the usual formal interpretation of the law. Mrs. Donaldson visited the courtroom Thursday afternoon with her three daughters and a youth who said at first he was a son and later that he was not. Mrs. Donaldson and Mrs. Ridgely had never met.

Mrs. Ridgely, who was a star witness at Wednesday's session when she testified about Donaldson's proposal of marriage to her while he was interesting her and her father in mining stock, identified his love letters in which he called her "pet," "babe," "babe" and "dear girl," signing himself "Butter," and told about how he pretended he was suing his wife for divorce, did not see Mrs. Donaldson in the courtroom as she, Mrs. Ridgely, was in the Circuit Attorney's office, the door of which was closed.

Take Another Route. When Mrs. Donaldson and her daughters were leaving the building they were informed by their youthful escort that a photographer was waiting outside to get a snapshot of the party. They then went to the second floor and left the building by way of the Eleventh street door, which is just behind Judge McQuillin's courtroom only a few feet from where Mrs. Ridgely was sitting.

Mrs. Ridgely heard the women running down the steps. "Mrs. Donaldson is running away to keep from having her picture taken," replied Deputy Moore.

"Oh, where is she?" exclaimed Mrs. Ridgely, jumping to her feet. "I want to see that woman."

Mrs. Ridgely, holding her skirts so they would not interfere with her speed, took up the chase. Down Eleventh street, from Clark avenue to Spruce street, the party ran. Mrs. Donaldson, in the lead with one of her daughters at her heels, the photographer was in second place and Mrs. Ridgely closing in on them at every step.

Suddenly Mrs. Donaldson stopped, and, turning upon Mrs. Ridgely, upbraided her for following.

Threatened With Arrest. "What do you mean?" demanded Mrs. Donaldson. "If I don't get away from me I'll have you arrested."

With a toss of her head and a little laugh, Mrs. Ridgely turned on her heel and went back to the Four Courts. The photographer placed his kodak on the sidewalk while he stopped to witness the meeting of the two women and someone ran off with it.

My plans just fine. I go down to the mine this afternoon. Am going to give the property of the company I spoke to you of a thorough examination. Will not return before Sunday. Don't be uneasy about me. I feel fine. I will come to see you one week from Saturday. If your father can arrange to get the money for the notes by that time. It would save me $40 by his giving me a St. Louis draft or Chicago draft, and he had as well have that so you tell him I would give him $35, so that will be more than what the interest would amount to. I hope you are all well.

Good-by, with lots of love and best wishes. I fear I won't have a chance to write you any more before Sunday, but you have a sweet letter before me when I get back. Good-by.

the 100th anniversary of the city and they are having the usual Valedictory affair. Every hotel is full and will be up to one week from today. Anyway, you let me know when you will be through. I want to see you real bad.

I think of you all the time. I am quite busy. I will see that you get your deeds not later than the 10th. The mine is doing fine. Good-by, with a heart brimful of love and lots of kisses. As ever, BUTTER.

"Dear Girl" Again. A third is dated Dec. 17, 1909. It is as follows: "My Dear Girl—I cannot express my feelings. To say I am disappointed does not express it. I will say but little and will tell you though I am confident nothing is out and you are not to blame. "Nothing has been said or done to indicate a fight and why it is put off I do not know, but it is, which means a long wearisome wait and four months of strain. I am so blue I feel like almost giving up, and yet you are so much to me, and, too, father is worse. I shall leave here early in the morning for his home and remain over Sunday. I will be in early Monday morning. "I want you to sit down and write me a long, cheerful letter, as I want to hear from you as soon as I return. I wrote your father this morning. I hope he can get somebody to go down to the mine. I will be here Tuesday. I am going to stay busy, and that may make me contented. You must not worry. I want you to arrange to go wherever you choose, so you can be contented. I love and trust you fully. Believe me to be ever as always and forever, yours, "BUTTER."

CHILDREN WILL SELL BADGES FOR FOURTH OF JULY

Object Is to Raise Money for School Associations to Use in Big Celebration.

School children of the Fairground district will sell badges to be worn on the Fourth of July for a celebration under auspices of the school patrons' associations and citizens in the North End. The badge is a gilt bar with a silk American flag and a button with the inscription, "Patriotic Independence Day, Fairground, July 4, 1911"—will sell for 10 cents. Representatives of the Blair-Howard School Association have pledged the sale of 1000 badges. The Columbia Father's Club has promised to sell 3000, and the Farragut School Association expects to sell 5000.

out the project without aid of the Patriotic Independence Day Association. The plan was decided on at a meeting of principals, instructors and citizens in Testman High School.

Tomorrow-- Begins the Season's Greatest Sale

The "L" System Clothing

We Purchased Their "Overstock."

Eleven hundred Suits, which ordinarily sell for $25.00, $27.50, $30.00, $32.50, $35.00, $37.50 and $40.00, go on sale tomorrow morning promptly at 8 o'clock at $16

Solid, Substantial Value Giving—in the Greatest Opportunity Offered Young Men This Season

Every young man knows the "L" System. That's why we were so enthusiastic when this special buying opportunity came our way. We were so enthusiastic we bought the entire quantity offered and we know the young men will be just as enthusiastic. In fact, we fully expect this sale to sweep St. Louis.

These Suits were all made up for this Spring and Summer season. They are just such suits as we have carried regularly in our stock, which so many young men have purchased. Such materials as fancy chevrons and worsteds are included. There is a great assortment of the dressy navy blue serges—in both the plain and shadow-stripe effects. The black unfinished worsteds can also be had.

One of the Most Striking Features of "L" System Clothes Is the Tailoring

They embody those ideas which young men want. They have the long rolling lapels, the close, snug-fitting collar and the smooth shoulders which give such a snappy air to clothes. The findings are standard—just the same as materials—and the workmanship shows the care which only a firm with a reputation this house has can afford to give.

Not One of These Suits Is Worth Less Than $25.00. Many Are Worth $40.00

By that we mean that we could not afford to sell them for less had we made the purchase in the regular way. A great many of these suits are worth $27.50 and $30.00; a large quantity at $32.50 and $35.00, and you will readily see a great many $37.50 and $40.00 suits in this large assortment. They are this season's new styles and come to us just in time for the young men to be benefited by them.

EVERY FELLOW WHO COMES GETS A SET OF "VARSITY POSTERS"

—not posters full of advertising and small pictures in an obscure corner, but six-color "eyestarters" that you'll go dippy over. Certainly worth "hugging" in a gilt frame for any den. There are 4000, so don't bid "good-by" to the last one handed out.

PRESIDENT FEARS RECIPROCITY IS TO MEET DEFEAT

Amendments by Root and Others Threaten to Strangle Agreement, Executive Holds and Addition of the Free List Bill Would Prevent Its Adoption.

ASKS SUPPORTERS TO RENEW EFFORT

Measures Involving Tariff Reduction, Taft Believes, Should Be Considered on Their Own Merits and He Promises Fair Play.

By Wire From the Washington Bureau of the Post-Dispatch. WASHINGTON, May 26.—Reciprocity with Canada is facing defeat in the Senate. President Taft is so concerned that he has appealed to his friends in and out of Congress for additional support.

Senator Root's wool pulp amendment and the farmers' free list are what are threatening the reciprocity bill, and the President fears they will encompass its defeat, unless the supporters of reciprocity rally to quick action.

President Taft was informed by Senator Penrose of the Finance Committee that unless the President can change two votes, that committee will adopt the Root amendment. As the committee now stands the President is convinced the Root amendment will be adopted by one or two votes. The committee will not act on the amendment until some time next week.

Fears Other Amendments. "What the President fears most is that the Root amendment is adopted, the gates will be opened to other amendments, until the bill is strangled. Between now and Monday the President will use all his persuasion to change at least two votes in the committee to favor reciprocity.

An equal danger, as the White House sees it, is the farmers' free list bill. The danger lies in that bill being attached to the Canadian bill. Old-time Democrats in the Senate, such as Mark Hanna and Swanson of Virginia, and Bacon of Georgia, favor reciprocity. They would vote for it under most circumstances, but, according to the President, their activity now, in attempting to tie the farmers' free list bill to the Canadian bill, threatens to spell defeat for both measures.

Information was brought to the President that 15 Democrats were taking their stand in order to force the Farmers' free list bill out of the committee. They contend that that is the only remedy in which it can be got before the Senate, as they have been as good as told that it would not be reported out as a separate measure. If the free list is tacked on the Canadian bill, President Taft has been informed, 30 Republicans will vote against it, thus defeating the Canadian bill.

The President has not declared himself for or against the farmers' free list bill. He believes there is both good and bad in it, but he holds that any bill of importance should be brought before the Senate separately for a vote on its own merits. He is against the tactics of tacking one bill to another, to defeat one or both.

His Deal Is Promised. The President wants the friends of reciprocity and of the farmers' free list to get together and work for each bill separately. He will give all parties a fair deal when it comes to passing on the measures after they leave Congress for his signature. He has indicated that much in his speech.

Allen and Graham, the New York attorneys for the National Grange, in opposition to reciprocity, have been asked by the Finance Committee to appear for examination next Monday. This action was taken on motion of Senator Stone, who had previously stated a desire to find out who is behind the fight on reciprocity.

WOMEN AS SHOE SHINERS A FAILURE Kansas City Place Closes Up Because of Lack of Trade.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 26.—After being open one month, a shoe shining stand run by women, closed today on account of lack of trade. Men would not visit the place and women customers were too few to make the business profitable. Before the stand opened the following sign was placed in the front window: "Pretty girls will shine your shoes here." Immediately there came a protest. An occupation license was refused the manager of the stand; but it was permitted to open on probation. At no time were there more than three women employed.

San Francisco Chief Suspended. SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—Chief of Police John F. Seymour was suspended by the Board of Police Commissioners pending trial on charges of permitting the operation of gambling houses and with causing dissension in the department.

The Post-Dispatch is the only evening newspaper in St. Louis that contains the following news gathered by the Associated Press.

Don't Be Deceived by False Symptoms

Indications of Disturbed Digestion Are Often Mistaken for Other Disorders and Cause Unnecessary Alarm.

All of these symptoms are caused by stomach trouble, and when this is righted the alarming symptoms disappear. If you have them look to the condition of your stomach for the cause before you start to treat the symptoms rather than the disease.

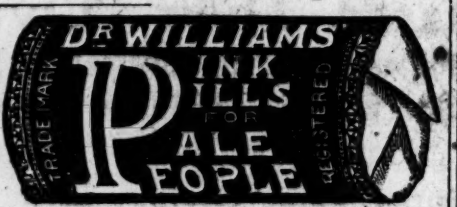

If the sufferer from any form of stomach trouble is pale and the blood thin, the first step towards restoring the activity of the stomach is to improve the condition of the blood. A supply of rich, well-oxygenated blood is necessary to the processes of digestion and with it, if errors in diet are avoided, nature will work a cure. This is known as the tonic treatment for indigestion, and its success is illustrated by the following cure:

Mrs. William Frederic of No. 916 Second Street, New Orleans, La., says: "A little over two years ago I suffered from a attack of acute indigestion, and everything I ate soured on my stomach. At first I had smothering spells around my heart and a feeling of fullness after eating even a slight amount of food. I used to go all day without eating as I dreaded to eat so. I suffered from dizziness in the top of my head and if I turned around quickly I would almost fall down. Every two or three days I would have a violent sick headache. For months at a time I would seem to be on the point of fainting. I lost in flesh rapidly."

"For three or four months I tried two or three doctors and also several remedies that were recommended to me. The doctors treated me for the heart and stomach but I didn't get any better and I gave up in disgust. Sometime ago a friend advised me to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and I started them at once. The dizzy spells disappeared as soon as I began the treatment. I began to have an appetite and have not been troubled with the sourness in my stomach since. I can walk anywhere now, whereas while I was sick I couldn't walk out at all. I have gained in weight and look and feel fifty per cent better. I am glad to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People to anyone who is suffering from stomach trouble. No one could be much worse off than I was, and as they did so much for me I believe they will cure others."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a general tonic and have cured such blood and nerve diseases as anaemia, rheumatism, after-effects of the grip and fevers, sciatica, neuralgia, sick headaches, St. Vitus' dance and other troubles. They cure stomach trouble by building up the blood so that it can nourish and strengthen the weakened digestive system. Hundreds of cures in most severe cases entitle this treatment to a thorough trial.

A copy of our diet book, "What to Eat and How to Eat," will be sent free on request to anyone interested. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Out today New Victor Records for June

A superb list of musical numbers with four announcements of unusual interest.

Alma Gluck now sings for the Victor
The latest addition to the galaxy of famous opera singers who make records exclusively for the Victor. Her lovely, even, sympathetic voice is heard at its best in the two records just issued.

Two superb records by Mario Sammarco
Perfect specimens of Sammarco's singing. All the roundness of tone, the volume, the admirable phrasing and technique for which the baritone is celebrated are reproduced to perfection.

Vessella's Italian Band plays three splendid selections
This dashing director with his famous band of soloists is one of Atlantic City's big attractions. His control over his band is remarkable—such precision and shading being quite unusual.

Lucia Sextette at a popular price
A magnificent record of this universally admired concerted number, at the extremely low price of $1.25. Sung by the Victor Opera Sextette—the pick of the Victor's competent vocal staff.

Hear these records at any Victor dealer's, and ask him for a June supplement which contains a complete list of new single- and double-faced records, with a detailed description of each.

And be sure to hear the Victor-Talkies
Victor Talking Machine Co., Camden, N. J.
Always use Victor Records, played with Victor Gramophones. There is no other way to get the unequalled Victor tone.

"Bought the Finest Lot of Misses' Dresses I Ever Saw at the Price!"

That's the message as it came to us just before these Dresses arrived from New York by express.

We're counting them now, and as we do, we write it down that on Saturday you can buy the finest Dresses for the young lady of the family YOU ever saw at the price!

Such little confessions, as the French would say!

And our people stop and make such a "to-do" over every one that it's a wonder we have time for the real work of counting and ticketing.

Just About a Third to Half Below to Pay!

But that isn't so good news as the news that these are Dresses from the very prince of makers of dresses for young women and girls!

Hardly any two alike—just out of their boxes for tomorrow's special selling—and what a sight the Girls' Store will be!

Dainty little dresses of cotton voile, marquisette or batiste, exquisitely hand-embroidered in floral designs or trimmed with contrasting tinted self-material.

Then there are Dresses trimmed with the finest real Irish or Cluny lace insertion—Dresses finished with rows of real lace or lace medallions, and the prettiest colored hand-embroidery in lavender, coral or sky blue.

In fact, so many and so wonderfully clever that it would actually be worth your while to see them even without the slightest intention of buying.

But no young woman will miss buying two or three for the Summer wardrobe—from these collections which have all been grouped at $14.75.

Dresses Usually Seen at $19.75, $24.75, $29.75 and Even $32.50 Are Marked $14.75

We have pictured two of the Dresses which are included in this purchase.

TREATIES ENDORSED BY BUSINESS MEN

Lake Mohonk Conference Favors Unlimited Arbitration With Other Nations.

MOHONK LAKE, N. Y., May 25.—The representatives of 51 commercial organizations, attending the seventeenth annual meeting of the Lake Mohonk Conference on International Arbitration, today sent telegrams to President Taft and Senator Cullom, chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, saying they "heartily endorse treaties of unlimited arbitration with Great Britain, France and other countries and wish speedy success with such treaties."

Oscar S. Straus, member of the Hague Court and former ambassador to Turkey, addressed the conference on "Business and International Arbitration."

Three Deaths in Illinois River. PEORIA, Ill., May 25.—Three youths lost their lives by drowning in the Illinois River, the fatalities occurring within two hours of each other. The dead are: Emil Bowman, 15 years old; Francis Lynch, aged 17 years, and Andrew McGinn, 15 years old.

The Bride's Choice

It would be difficult to conceive of a more acceptable gift than a sparkling diamond, full of life and beauty, and the emblem of purity.

When you are considering the purchase of one you will do yourself an injustice if you fail to inspect our very comprehensive stock and see what our prices are.

BOILERS EXPLODE IN ALTON FACTORY; 2 FATALLY HURT

Engineer and Helper So Badly Scalded Doctors Say They Cannot Live.

PLANT WRECKED, 4000 IDLE

One Man, Blown Through Window by Shocks, Escapes With Slight Injuries.

Two men were probably fatally scalded and 4000 men thrown into temporary idleness when a battery of five boilers exploded in the power house of the Illinois Glass Factory at Alton at 6 a. m., Friday.

Thomas S. Boswell, aged 31, an engineer, was scalded from head to foot. James Smith, a negro helper, was also scalded over his entire body. Both men were taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, but are not expected to live.

William Johnson, a negro helper, was blown through a window of the boiler room, but escaped with slight injuries. C. E. Johnson, one of the day engineers, said the explosion probably was caused by the failure of an automatic valve to properly regulate the supply of water in the boilers. He thought the water in the boilers was exhausted, causing the explosion.

The force of the explosion rocked the neighborhood for blocks around. The detonation was heard throughout the Alton.

The five boilers that exploded were each 30 feet long and 22 inches in diameter. The boiler room was partially wrecked and the walls of the three-story building were blown out of plumb. The damage to the building is estimated at $10,000.

The explosion crippled the power plant of the factory to such an extent that it had to close for repairs. The 4000 employees will be idle for several days.

Boswell was getting ready to leave the power house when the explosion occurred. With his skin badly torn he ran from the power house to his home, four blocks away. He burst into his home and threw himself upon the bed and cried for help.

It was some time after the explosion before Boswell's fellow workmen knew what had become of him. An ambulance was sent for him and he was taken to the hospital.

The explosion occurred just as the night and day forces were changing shifts.

3 RACE FOR LADY'S GARTER AT WALDORF

Bobby Beresford and Tea Man, Losers Glare as Hotel Man Restores Trinket.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The Hon. Bobby Beresford, known to the elite books as the Hon. Robert Seton Beresford; Assistant Manager John Hobby of the Waldorf-Astoria, and James Humphrey, a tea expert, had a race in the corridor of the Waldorf-Astoria last night.

The prize was a lady's garter with a small gold chain purse attached to it. The three saw the thing slip from under the pale blue skirt of a young person with fluffy hair, and eyes as blue as her dress. The assistant manager was an easy winner and the Hon. Bobby and the tea man got out in front of Hobby while he put the little object in his owner's hand and glared at him so hard that he did not dare smile—it, indeed he wanted to.

SEEK KIDD'S GOLD IN BOSTON PARK

Brother Gets Permission to Dig After Sister Dreams of Location.

BOSTON, May 25.—Under the gray walls of Fort Independence, on Castle Island, now one of Boston's most popular parks, a treasure hunting expedition by permission of the park commission is seeking Capt. Kidd's gold.

The exact spot on the northwest corner of the island where the treasure is hidden was revealed to Miss May Kinnear in a dream. Miss Kinnear did the dreaming and her brother is doing the digging.

BAG WITH $50,000 IN GEMS FOUND

Property Returned to Owner and the Finder Will Receive $1000.

DETROIT, Mich., May 25.—A black satchel containing $50,000 in diamonds and jewelry, lost on Jefferson avenue on May 11 by Mrs. Waldo A. Avery, wife of a wealthy business man, was last night restored to her husband by Anthony A. Selewsky, who says he found the jewels a short time after they were lost.

Selewsky, a bicycle dealer, 30 years of age, will receive a reward of $1000. Detectives were employed by Avery and it was not until this week that the loss was made public.

Man Found Wandering. Monroe Einhorn, aged 24, of 4336 Laclede avenue, was taken to the observation ward of the city hospital by police Friday. He escaped from his room at home at 12:30 a. m. and his father notified the police to look for him. They found him at Taylor and Laclede avenues, half an hour later, and took him to the hospital.

HEBREWS BAR SHYLOCK

Objection Stops High School "Merchant of Venice."

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., May 25.—On the ground that the character of Shylock is, in effect, a reflection on the Jewish race, the play "The Merchant of Venice," which was to have been given in connection with the graduation exercises of the Central High School, has been banned at the request of Hebrew pupils.

There was one scholar, however, who did not object, although he is of Jewish parentage and was to have taken the part of Shylock.

DARROW SEES McNAMARAS

Chicago Attorney In Los Angeles to Fight Dynamite Case.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 25.—Clarence Darrow, a Chicago attorney, who will conduct the defense of the McNamara brothers, arrived here today from San Francisco accompanied by Ed Nockels, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor.

He went directly to the jail. He remained several hours with the McNamaras.

BLACK HANDERS CAUGHT

Detectives See Them Take Money, and Give Chase.

NEW YORK, May 25.—Two alleged writers of Black Hand letters are under arrest after a midnight chase and revolver duel between them and pursuing detectives.

Their arrest was planned when Angelo Sperlazzo, a grocer, received a Black Hand letter demanding $300 upon penalty of death. He followed instructions given and met the men with marked bills on a bridge over the Harlem. A signal when he passed the money brought the detectives on the run.

FIRE DESTROYS LOCOMOTIVES IN EAST ST. LOUIS

The roundhouse of the Southern Railway, at the crossing of the Southern and Mobile & Ohio railroads, near the southwestern city limits of East St. Louis, was destroyed by fire which started at 2 o'clock Friday morning. Three locomotives were destroyed. The loss is between $40,000 and $50,000, according to E. J. Coffey, the East St. Louis agent.

The fire started in the machine shop, connected with the roundhouse. Assistant Fire Chief Brucks was notified by telephone. The department turned out, but for lack of roads were unable to get near enough to use their apparatus. A line of hose was finally manned by the railway men, with a locomotive pumping a stream, but it was too late to save anything.

TORN PICTURES OF HIS SLAYER FOUND ON TONY VON PHUL

He Is Believed to Have Taken Them From Home of Matron, Cause of Row.

MEN IN FIGHT BEFORE

Exhibition of Photographs by St. Louisan Thought to Have Provoked Shooting.

DENVER, Colo., May 26.—Preparations for the legal battle in prospect as an outgrowth of the shooting in the Brown Palace Hotel Wednesday night, resulting in the death of S. L. ("Tony") von Phul of St. Louis and the wounding of George R. Copeland of Victor, and J. W. Atkinson of Colorado Springs, await the outcome of the coroner's inquest, scheduled for 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Harold F. Henwood, in jail charged with the shooting, has refused interviewers further information regarding the causes that led to the clash. However, Henwood's attorney has announced that a plea of self-defense will be made, based on the claim that Von Phul had previously threatened the life of his client and drawn a gun on Henwood.

Torn Pictures in Pocket.
Search of the pockets of S. von Phul tended to throw light today on the cause of the fight.

Torn photographs of Henwood bearing his photograph, and believed to have been given by him to a Denver matron for whose favors the two men were believed to have been rivals were found in Von Phul's pockets. The police believe these were secretly removed from the woman's home by Von Phul, and that their exhibition to Henwood by Von Phul started the row that resulted in Von Phul's death. It is known that the two men came to blows in Von Phul's room a day or so before the shooting.

G. W. Atkinson, the Colorado Springs contractor, who was accidentally shot in the course of the mix-up Wednesday night, was seriously wounded. It has developed. The bullet entered his right leg and shattered the bone and amputation may be necessary.

Constable Asks Fair Trial.
Henry von Phul, formerly Sheriff of Cripple Creek and a cousin of the deceased, who is aiding the prosecution in the preparation of its case, says that all he will ask is a fair trial and promises that the affair will be investigated thoroughly.

Following the inquest Von Phul's body will be sent to St. Louis. Jealousy, aroused in St. Louis several months ago by favors shown the two by a woman there, and further inflamed by the discovery that they were rivals for the favor of a Denver society leader, it is believed, caused the trouble between the men.

Three Bullets Lodged.
Von Phul died 12 hours after he was shot. Three bullets penetrated his body, the last lodging in his spine. The surgeon pronounced such a wound fatal in almost every instance, but in spite of this warning, after his wounds were treated, Von Phul walked into the open air.

WANDERS STREETS IN SEARCH FOR CHILDREN

Woman Declares They Were Stolen While She Was in Hospital—Carries Baby.

Mrs. Louisa Kuntze, 26 years old, of Festus, Mo., sobbed continuously at the city hospital Friday, and cried for the return of her three children. She is held in the observation ward. She was found wandering at Virginia avenue and Bates street Thursday night by Patrolman Stupp, carrying her 8 weeks' old child.

Mrs. Kuntze told hospital attendants that while she was sick at the St. Louis Female Hospital two months ago her three children, Henlee, 7 years old; Howard, 4, and William, 3, were taken from her sister's home, 3006 South Broadway, by someone. For two weeks she has searched for the children in St. Louis and Festus, but has been unable to find them, she said.

She came back to St. Louis Wednesday and has been walking about the streets hoping to find the children, she told the police. She will be held while an effort is made to verify her story.

TWO MEN SEEKING FRESH AIR FALL

Each Tumbles From Second Story Window Where They Were Driven by Heat.

Two men, seeking fresh air, fell from second-story windows Thursday night and are at the city hospital with broken bones.

P. R. Tondro, 31 years old, who boards at the home of H. M. Robinson, 104 South Broadway, fell out of the window in his room while asleep. That was the last Tondro remembered until he landed on a sidewalk. His left thigh and wrist are broken.

Those who try Post-Dispatch wants to solving domestic and business problems as they come, are pleased with the want.

CHANCES DESERT DEATH TO ESCAPE FANCIED HORROR

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—After wandering in the Mojave Desert for nearly two days without food or water, Maria Ferrari, an Italian immigrant girl, has been brought to the home of her brother here.

Terrified by the malicious stories of Italians she met on the journey from New York, she jumped from a Santa Fe train near Bartow, preferring to chance death on the blazing sands of the Mojave rather than face the fate they pictured awaiting her in San Francisco.

Taking advantage of her ignorance of the language and American customs, Italian passengers on the train told her lurid and terrifying stories of American laws and customs, making her believe her brother, whom she was traveling to join, was angry at her coming without his permission and would kill her.

When her absence was discovered, hours after she had left the train, a message was sent to the station agent at Bartow to search for her. The agent succeeded in finding her trail, but did not overtake her for over 24 hours.

What a Difference Just a Few Drops Make

Actol Takes the Shine Off the Elbows, the Rubbed Places, Makes Clothes Look Like New.

See the young woman whose waist has been rubbed in one spot until it has become shiny. All the rest of the waist was perfectly good, sound, and the nap fresh and live.

Actol just got after that one shiny spot, rubbed it so that it sat up and took notice again, and the whole waist is now looking fresh and with that "brand-new, right-from-the-store" look to the fabric.

Even where the nap is rubbed off, Actol entirely restores the shine, restores the color and makes a tremendous improvement in the appearance of the fabric.

Actol enables you to save yourself many dollars, and to appear fresh and well dressed at all times. One shiny spot will kill the appearance of a garment otherwise attractive, and one treatment with Actol will take away the shine and make an entire outfit look smart and trim.

Anyone can use it. It is very simple to apply and acts very promptly. It is also very effective for rugs, carpets, hangings, covers, sofa pillows, etc. Actol is guaranteed to give satisfactory results in all respects. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if it doesn't.

Sold by all druggists in 25 and 50 cent sizes. If you have any difficulty securing it, do not accept a dangerous substitute but send the price to the St. Louis Actol Chemical Co., Delmar and Euclid avenues, St. Louis, Mo., and a bottle will be sent you.

CARNEGIE IS SAID TO BE BEHIND WAR ON STEEL COMBINE

Report of Opposition Trust Follows John W. Gates' Activity in the Market.

REVELATIONS EXPECTED

Gates Is Declared Prepared to Tell Congress Story of Tennessee Coal and Iron.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, May 26.—Wall street heard today that, before announcing his out in pieces of steel, John W. Gates and his Chicago associates sold 100,000 shares of United States Steel common stock short and that Morgan and his allies are resisting the effort to break the prices of steel common. Nearly 16,000 shares were traded in yesterday at a net decline of only 1/4 of 1 per cent. The price was forced down from 78 1/2 to 77 1/2, but enormous buying orders appeared and the price rallied to 78.

Another story set afloat is that a powerful opposition company is to be formed by the former officials of the United States Steel Corporation known as the "Carnegie graduates," who have been forced out by the influence of Gary. Among these are Charles M. Schwab, William E. Corey and W. B. Dickson. It was repeated that Andrew Carnegie is backing Schwab in the Bethlehem Steel Corporation and that this is to be the nucleus of the opposition trust.

Bears Held Responsible.
Many persons hold the bears responsible for these stories and for a report that John W. Gates has notified the Congressional investigating committee that he will tell the inside story of how the Tennessee Coal and Iron pool was forced by the Morgan interests to disgorge its holdings in the panic of 1907, and that Oakleigh Thorne will tell how powerful Wall street interests refused to aid his Trust Company of North America until after it had called several big loans for which Tennessee Coal and Iron stock was held as collateral.

It is said Gates will testify that there were 13 members of the Tennessee Coal and Iron pool, among them the president of a prominent national bank, supposed to be controlled by the Morgan interests, and that this man was the only one who voluntarily surrendered his stock, and that the others were forced to give it up. According to this story, the present fight against the United States Steel Corporation, conducted by Gates, is largely an attempt to get satisfaction for the treatment he received at that time.

Challenge Is Accepted.
On Feb. 9 last John W. Gates gave out an interview in Chicago saying that there would be a bull year not only in the financial but in the commercial. "Pay no attention to stock exchange gossip on the steel trade," he said. "I should not be surprised to see a boom." Wall street recalled today that, about fourteen years ago, when Gates first appeared in Wall street, then president of the American Steel and Wire Co., the stock of that company was put to its high mark on a bullish interview given out by Gates and collapsed soon after the report became current that Gates and his friends had gone enormously short of the stock. At the same time Gates gave out another interview saying his company had been forced to close many of its mills because of trade stagnation. The United States Steel Corporation had accepted the challenge of John W. Gates and his Republic Steel and Iron Co. by cutting the price of steel bars $3 a ton. It is believed by many that an open market will be declared, but the directors of the Lackawanna Steel Co. decided yesterday to await developments before taking any action on prices; in other words, they will watch the contest between United States Steel and the Republic Steel and Iron.

SUES PAPER FOR $100,000

SEATTLE, Wash., May 26.—Ernest Brainerd, editor of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, has been arrested on a warrant charging criminal libel. The warrant was issued on complaint of Clarence B. Blethen, managing editor of the Seattle Times. Similar warrants were issued for former United States Senator J. L. Wilson, president of the Post-Intelligencer Co., and W. W. Chapin, manager of the paper.
Col. A. J. Blethen, editor of the Times, also brought civil suit against the Post-Intelligencer company for $100,000 damages. Both criminal and civil proceedings are the outgrowth of the indictment of Col. Blethen and his associates of the Times last Tuesday and of the comments of the Post-Intelligencer thereupon.

FARMERS ESCAPE FROM JURY DUTY

Judge Wurdeman Declares He Will Excuse Tillers of the Soil.

It's fine to be a farmer in St. Louis County. Judge Wurdeman excuses tillers of the soil from jury service in his Clayton court.

"Any farmer who tells me his crops need his attention need not serve," Judge Wurdeman told a Post-Dispatch reporter Friday, "and I have given directions that the takersmen for each week until the September term be drawn from the suburban towns.

"Business men can get away from their work more easily than farmers. They can leave a clerk in charge, but the farmer as a rule must direct his work personally or do it himself."

Judge Wurdeman has excused five farmers in the last two weeks because they said they were needed at home and seven because they were deaf. He commented on the fact that there seemed to be an epidemic of deafness.

AMERICANS MEET KING

Women Presented at Last London Court of Season.

LONDON, May 26.—Another brilliant court was held last evening, marking the end of the series for this year in London.

Mrs. Reid, wife of the American Ambassador, presented Mrs. Post Wheeler, wife of the secretary of the American embassy at Petersburg; Mrs. J. Nicholas Brown of New York; Mrs. James T. Harlan, wife of the former president of the Illinois Central Railroad; and Miss Julia Chapin, daughter of R. W. Chapin, and Miss Blanche Barron, American residents of London.

HAPPY HOOLIGAN IN JAIL

Looks Part, and Says He Never Knew Any Other Name.

Happy Hooligan is a prisoner in the East St. Louis Police Station. He insists that is his name and so is recorded on the book. He looks the part, and with a tin can on his head might be supposed to have stepped right out of the funnyside. He was arrested Thursday evening by Patrolman Leahy for drunkenness.

He says he is 37 years old and was born at Eighth and Market streets in New York, and he avers that he never knew any other name but Happy Hooligan.

SECRECY AT YALE ENDS

Reports in Figures of Standing Will Be Given to Men.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 26.—The secret marking system, which has been in vogue at Yale for many years, is to be abandoned. Under the new order, twice each year, at the end of the terms, a report in figures of the standing will be sent to each man.

Heretofore the student has been obliged to seek out each individual instructor and has been given notice of his marks by a letter system. The change was made at the request of the senior council.

CAPITOL GUIDE, 60, WINS RICH WIDOW

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Love at first sight has deprived the capital of a good guide, and won for the guide a beautiful and wealthy widow as his bride. The guide is Charles K. Amidon. The bride is Mrs. Helen Herrshoff De Wolf of Bristol, R. I., daughter of John B. Herrshoff, boat builder.

Mrs. De Wolf, with her two little girls, visited the capital five weeks ago. Amidon was sent to conduct her about the institutions. Mrs. De Wolf made several trips to the capital after that, and the next the capital guides knew Amidon told them he was going to be married. The wedding took place in Boston and the couple are now living at Bristol.

Amidon is about 60 and his bride about 40.

NO PROSECUTION OF OIL KING IN SIX MONTHS, IF AT ALL

Wickersham to Tell Senate No Steps Have Been Taken Against Officials.

WAITS FOR DISSOLUTION

Administration Believes Supreme Court Time Limit Should Be Adhered to.

By Wire From the Washington Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, May 25.—Attorney-General Wickersham will reply today to Senator Pomeroy's resolution directing the Attorney-General to report to the Senate if any action has been taken to prosecute criminally the officials of the Standard Oil Co. The Attorney-General's reply will state:

No action has been taken to prosecute criminally any officers of the Standard Oil Co.

No action is pending to the end that any officers of the Standard Oil Co. are to be prosecuted criminally.

Attorney-General Wickersham said this does not mean that the officials of the Standard Oil Co. are not to be prosecuted criminally for violations of the Sherman anti-trust law. He said it meant he was going to answer categorically the questions asked in the resolution and nothing more.

Six Months' Leeway.
It is declared on authority that no criminal action will be brought against the officials of the Standard Oil Co. until after the expiration of the six months allowed to the corporation for dissolution by the United States Supreme Court. The administration believes that to bring criminal action prior to the expiration of the six months on Nov. 15 would be highly improper.

The Attorney-General is of the opinion that the officers of the Standard Oil Co. cannot be prosecuted criminally for their activity up to the time they gave their evidence in the civil suit. But whether the trust officials can be criminally prosecuted for violations of the Sherman anti-trust law between the time of the evidence in the civil suit and the date of the handing down of the decision of the United States Supreme Court is another matter—a matter to which the administration is giving careful consideration.

If the officials of the Standard Oil Co. can be prosecuted criminally, it will be for their violations of law while the civil suit was being fought out in the different courts (under the ruling of the United States Supreme Court in the case of the United States vs. Kissel and others) according to members of the Administration. Attorney-General Wickersham says this is a nice legal question and one to which he will give close study.

The ruling of the Supreme Court in the Kissel case was that if there was a conspiracy, as defined by the Sherman anti-trust law, continued after civil suit was brought, or from the time the statute of limitations began to run, the officers guilty of conspiracy would be tried criminally.

Test Case Is Necessary.
In the opinion of the Attorney-General and other members of the Administration, the question of whether the Standard Oil Co. officials are guilty of continuing the conspiracy on which they were civilly prosecuted, to within three years of the time of the decision of the Supreme Court dissolving the combination, would have to be determined by a test case, based on evidence. At the department it was said this evidence is not in hand and to get it would necessitate another investigation.

The Administration does not believe that the action of the Supreme Court in giving the Standard Oil Co. six months in which to destroy its organization as a trust, legalizes a continuance for six months of the practices heretofore in operation. The Administration does not believe that the action of the court in this instance has anything to do with the question of whether the officials of the Oil Trust can be criminally proceeded against.

WILL NOT HAVE POLICE ROWDYISM

East Side Chief Suspends Patrolman on Complaint of Citizen.

"Rowdiness on the part of the police will not be tolerated," said Chief of Police Thompson of East St. Louis Friday after he had suspended Patrolman Thomas Coats on complaint of C. F. Windt, an automobile dealer of Carlisle, Ill.

Windt told the Chief that he was arrested early Thursday morning and that when he asked Coats why he was being arrested the policeman refused to tell him. An argument ensued and he said the policeman hit him with his club.

Windt was booked at police headquarters as a suspect but was released. His head was cut and bruised. Windt who was visiting his brother Henry, of 408 Missouri avenue, had come to East St. Louis to buy an automobile. He had $800 when searched.

Policeman James Madden also was suspended Friday and charges of making a false report will be preferred against him.

STABS WIFE AND CHILDREN

CHICAGO, May 25.—Pasquale Labriola (tabbed and probably mortally wounded) wife and two young daughters and then attempted to kill himself today. The whole family may die.

Labriola, who was still conscious when the police reached him, said his wife had threatened to get a divorce and that if he couldn't have her no one else would. He had been separated from her for a year.

We want to hammer home the Big Fact that these suits are of the best quality of merchant tailoring it is possible to obtain; that every suit is a fine, hand-made suit; that these clothes are City Clothes in the best sense of the word. The best skill in America has produced them. The prices are positively absurd. The whole proposition is in a class by itself. If you confuse it with other sales, because of the low prices, you are working a rank injustice upon us!

We will send home a group of these suits if you want us to. Or we'll send them to your office. We'll do simply anything to get them before your eyes; to get you to try them on; to awaken you to the fact that these are better clothes than you ever owned, no matter where you bought your clothes in the past or what you paid for them. We'll give you the surprise of your life!

Buy two suits. Or three. Don't stop at one. Have a complete change of summer attire on hand. It won't cost you too much. Look at the reduced prices again. Figure a little. See how little it will cost you to own the finest blue suit and the finest gray suit you ever had in your born days. Select any color combination you like. Tell us what you want. Let us make good. We can't do it if you simply read and forget. Come to this store, and do it NOW!

DANVILLE, Ill., May 26.—William Blank, a barkeeper at Lyons, a suburb of this city, was arrested on a warrant charging him with the murder of John M. Sherlock of Pittsburg, Pa., whose body was found in Grape Creek recently.

Princess Irene to Sail.
NEW YORK, May 26.—The steamer Princess Irene, which ran ashore on a fire island sand bar April 12 and had to have her 1700 or more passengers taken off, has been repaired and she will sail tomorrow for Mediterranean ports.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at these will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of native American medicinal forest plants. KIMMEL TAKES PLACE AS NEW POLICE JUDGE

Soft-Spoken Successor to Daniel O'Connell Tracy Is Lenient First Day on Bench.

Judge Karl Kimmel, successor of Judge Daniel O'Connell Tracy on the bench of the Clark Avenue Police Court, presided for the first time Friday, with Judge Tracy sitting beside him, ready to assist him through the tight places. The new Judge was lenient toward two classes of offenders with which Judge Tracy has always been severe, violators of the traffic ordinance and street car fighters. An autoist who disregarded a traffic policeman's signal and a man who participated in a street car fight were both discharged, because it seemed to Judge Kimmel that neither of them had deliberately offended.

Judge Kimmel said little and his tones were soft. He did not feel called upon to censure any of the culprits that came before him, but he called several to the bench and admonished them not to get into trouble again.

The Post-Dispatch is the only evening newspaper in St. Louis that receives and publishes news gathered by the Associated Press.

HALF A THOUSAND BABIES WILL DIE IF AID COMES NOT

This Is the Summer Certainty in St. Louis' Crowded Tenement District.

IMPURE MILK KILLS THEM

Your Help Needed by League Organized for Their Rescue—Save the Babies!

If you saw a little child in imminent peril of death you would risk your own life to save that of the child.

You couldn't help doing it.

The child's face would haunt you always if you didn't.

Because a little child is so confident of help. It holds out its baby hands to the wide world, trusting, in moments of suffering or of sudden danger.

And humanity's love of children insures their protection.

We may come to hate grown folk. Life living is hard, sometimes, engendering hatred and all uncharitableness among the fierce strikers.

But nobody can hate a little child. It would be monstrous.

Yet here is the situation in St. Louis right now.

In the city's crowded districts 500 little children will surely—and needlessly—die this summer unless help comes to them.

Their deaths are as certain as if they were huddled together in some burning building from which there was no escape.

The diseases due to impure milk will kill them.

These diseases killed 972 tenement babies last summer. At least one-half of this number, it is authoritatively stated, would not have died could they have been fed with pure milk.

If we actually SAW half a thousand babies go down into the Valley of the Shadow of Death because we had failed to help them when help was possible, none of us would know a happy moment thereafter.

The cry of the dying babies would ring in our ears forever.

Well, we have no excuse now.

The "Save the Babies" League tells us the plain truth at this summer's outset.

At least 500 babies will die of "impure milk diseases" during the heated term now beginning unless such help is extended as will enable them to be fed on pure milk.

The "Save the Babies" League is organized to extend this help.

It has invited the Post-Dispatch to assist in its work, and the Post-Dispatch, in behalf of its readers, has accepted the invitation.

The sum total of $10,000 is needed for this work.

It must be contributed by the great St. Louis public which hears the appeal for help.

The little children of the tenements will be the beneficiaries of this fund—the little children of the poor, 500 of whom will surely die unless help is forthcoming.

If a total fund of $10,000 is raised, and especially if it is promptly raised, these 500 little children need not die.

The sum named will insure the establishment of so many pure milk stations, under direction of the St. Louis Pure Milk Commission, that no mother in all the city's crowded districts will have to walk more than five blocks to obtain pure milk for her baby.

It will insure the constant and competent advice of doctors as to the proper care of the babies and the modification of milk needed for each individual case.

It will insure the maintenance of a staff of nurses, one nurse at each pure milk station, and other nurses to visit the homes of the tenement babies, instructing mothers in many important essentials, such as the keeping of milk at the proper temperature, free ice being furnished to all who ask for it.

It will rescue from death the 500 babies who else must die.

You can help in this great work.

What are you going to do about it?

Save the babies!

Little Hortense Landau contributes $2 to the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund, writing, in hand-printed letters: "Here is $2 from my saved pennies for the poor babies for milk."

Little Augusta Marie Reifels, Lillian Weiss, Paula Springer and Lawrence Borchard send $1, realized from sales at a lemonade stand which they are still maintaining for the Pure Milk Fund on Lami street.

Manager Harry Keplar of the Imperial Moving Picture and Yvonneville Theater, Fifteenth and St. Louis avenue, turns in $12.05, one-half the gross receipts of that house's performances last Wednesday evening.

PLACES ON AMERICAN AIR TEAM BEGGING

England Has Set International Aeroplane Race at Time When Our Aviators Are Busy.

NEW YORK, May 26.—If there is an experienced aviator of American birth residing in America or abroad who has an aeroplane speedy enough to put it in the International Cup class, the Aero Club of America would like to hear from him. He will have an excellent chance of appointment to membership in the American team for the contest in England on July 1.

Henry Weymann, who is now flying in France, has been formally appointed as the head of the American team. Earl Clivington was offered a place on the team, but declined. England's selection of July 1 as the date for the race is regarded by the Aero club officials as the underlying cause for the difficulty America has in getting a team.

Most of the aviators in this country are too busy with summer exhibitions to go abroad for the event at this time. Had the race come in October, as in the two previous years, it is believed there would have been many candidates for the team.

RUN-DOWN CONDITIONS

Their Cause and Effect.

Run-down conditions are caused by a lack of iron in the blood and mal-assimilation of food. If you are one of the unfortunate who have drifted into this state, change your diet, eat foods that are rich in mineral elements of nutrition, and take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil), which supplies iron to the blood in the most easily assimilated form.

A case is reported from Mattoon, Ill.—Mrs. O. M. Watrous was in very poor health for years. She was weak, all run-down, no appetite, and only weighed ninety-seven pounds. She had doctor for a long time without benefit. Vinol was recommended. She tried it, and in less than a year she was in perfect health and weighed 127 pounds.

Vinol creates an appetite, re-establishes perfect digestion and makes good, pure blood. In this natural manner it builds up the run-down, weak and debilitated, and replaces weakness with strength.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., St. Louis.

18 INDIAN BUCKS GO ON WAR PATH AGAINST STOCKMEN

Shoshones in Nevada Would Avenge Killing of Band Which Murdered Whites.

By Associated Press.

RENO, Nev., May 24.—Eighteen Shoshone bucks, led by the eldest, 23 years old, from Duck Valley Reservation are in Little High Rock Canyon, northern Washoe County, to avenge the killing of the Indian band that murdered four Washoe County stockmen last February.

Deputy Constable Scott Buelow of Gerlach has advised all prospectors to keep away from the canyon unless prepared to fight.

The Indians are well armed. They are subsisting on beef and sheep pilaged from stockmen.

Two bucks, two squaws and two papooses, led by Indian Mike, were killed at Kelly's Creek, Feb. 24, while resisting arrest by the police for the killing of four stockmen.

TRANSFER SOUGHT TOO LATE, CARMAN REFUSES, BEATEN

S. M. Bardot, Pounded by Friends of Passenger, Has Concussion of Brain.

ATTACKED WITH WRENCH

Man Who Started Quarrel Is Identified and Will Be a Witness.

Because he would not give a transfer, near the end of the Sarah line, to a passenger who had paid his fare, Sidney M. Bardot, a conductor, was beaten by the passenger and fire of his friends Thursday afternoon. One of the men struck him on the head with a wrench, and Bardot is confined to his bed at his boarding place, 213 Evans avenue, suffering from concussion of the brain.

In a conscious interval Friday morning Bardot told the story of the attack on him, and identified a young man whom a policeman took to his bedside as the one who had started the quarrel with him, but not the one who had struck him on the head. The man was not arrested, but was put down as a witness.

Tells About the Attack. "I got this man's fare," said Bardot, "but he didn't ask for a transfer at the time, and when he asked for one near the end of the line I told him I couldn't give him one, as it was against the rules."

"He grumbled some, and when we got to the loop at the end of the line, he saw some friends of his working on a building and called them. They ran up, and when he told them what was the matter, they all began calling me names. When I got off they jumped on me, and one of them hit me with a wrench or some iron tool. That was the last I knew."

One of Bardot's assailants, it is believed, gave the motorman the signal to go ahead, for he started the car on the return trip and ran five blocks before he missed the conductor.

The motorman, Thomas Mansur, then ran the car back and took the injured conductor on board. He was taken to the office of Dr. Ayars at Easton and Vandeventer avenues.

Arthur Davis was acquitted in the Clark Avenue Police Court Friday by Judge Kimmel of the charge of disturbing the peace on a Market street car Saturday night because it appeared from his testimony that he was attacked by the conductor and motorman, who mistook him for another person.

Fight Started on Car. Young men returning from West End Heights on the car were boisterous. W. B. Hamilton, the conductor, warned them to behave and they attacked him when the car was at Leffingwell and Clark avenues. John Lawler, the motorman, went to his assistance.

Davis had been sitting in the car with Miss Margaret Tanager. She wanted to get off and as they reached the rear platform Hamilton struck at him and the motorman struck him on the head with the controller. He admitted that, under that provocation, he got into the fighting and pulled the trolley pole down to hold the car until a policeman arrived.

SOCIETY

MONEY FOR COLLEGES

Must Raise Large Sums to Share John D's Fund.

NEW YORK, May 24.—The General Educational Board, endowed for $23,000,000 by John D. Rockefeller, has made public a list of its latest appropriations for colleges and schools, amounting in all to $434,000.

All the gifts to colleges are what is known as conditional, and are applied to endowment only. That is, the general board agrees to give a certain amount provided the beneficiary raises a greater amount. Drury College, Springfield, Mo., is to get $75,000 if it raises $325,000 additional.

SAVE YOUR HAIR. EASIER TO DO THIS THAN GROW NEW HAIR. DANDRUFF CURED.

There is one place where bald-headed men shine, and that is in the front row seats of the theater. If these baldheaded people had used Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy in their earlier days they would not be so conspicuous now.

This preparation does not plant new hair, but it does strengthen weak, dying hair, and not only brightens dull, parched hair, but gradually restores the color to faded or gray hair. It is a clean, wholesome hair dressing, which can be used daily with perfect safety.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

LIQUOR MEN MEET IN ST CHARLES

They Elect Officers After Hearing of Healthy Condition of Treasury.

The Liquor Dealers' Benevolent Association of Missouri held its twenty-second annual convention at Odd Fellows Hall, St. Charles, Thursday. The grand officers and many of the grand council were present, together with 76 delegates from St. Louis, Cape Girardeau, Moberly and other cities throughout the State. The sessions were presided over by Henry Stuhlmann of St. Louis, and reports showing a balance of $60.25 in the general fund and $23 in the benefit fund were accepted and approved.

The newly elected grand officers are: President, L. A. Padberg, St. Louis; vice-presidents, E. C. Holliday, Springfield, and A. H. Hallway, St. Charles; secretary, Henry G. Eberhardt, St. Louis; treasurer, Charles A. Autenrieth, Clayton; sergeant-at-arms, John L. Miller, Cape Girardeau; inner guard, Michael Haley, St. Louis.

The next place of meeting will be decided later by the grand council.

'I WAS A SORT OF PRINCE CONSORT,' ASSERTS SHERARD

Irene Osgood's Husband Says
Trouble He Caused at Home
Was a 3-Minute Revolt.

NOVELIST OFTEN ANGELIC

But at Other Times She Was the Opposite, He Testifies, in Her Separation Suit.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

LONDON, May 26.—Robert Harbrough Sherard, statuesque, theatrical, flamboyant, testifying in his own behalf in the suit for separation brought by his wife, Irene Osgood, the American novelist, indignantly denied the charges of inebriety contained in the petition. He offered to submit himself to a medical examination, and agreed that, if the doctor reported a trace of alcoholism in his system, he would withdraw his defense to his wife's suit.

Five days after we met in Cannes in February, 1906," Sherard told the Court, "Irene offered to marry me if I got a divorce. Then we became engaged. She declared that she had been anxious to make my acquaintance ever since the first time she saw me in Paris in 1892. I traveled with her from 1898 until May, 1908, when we were married. Our only disagreement before that had been in Egypt, but we met again at Nice and became reconciled."

Angelic or Opposite.

Testifying in regard to his wife's treatment of him, Sherard said: "Sometimes she was angelic, sometimes the very opposite. Sometimes she forbade me to enter her room for 10 days; sometimes she sent for me 20 times in the morning. Sometimes she threw things at me; sometimes she covered me with caresses. I never considered myself entitled to go to her room without being called or asking permission, as she said a woman was entitled to privacy. Often I found her door relentlessly shut."

Describing the scene in Gullsbrough Hall, Dec. 25, when Mrs. Sherard made so great a commotion a policeman was called in, he declared:

"It was a three-minute revolt after five years' abject submission. She told me her first husband was a drinker and that her second, Col. Harvey, drank himself to death, yet drinking was always going on at Gullsbrough. I have seen three men come there drunk. I was only allowed water, while the visitors drank wine."

Cut Off From the World.

"I was left alone at Gullsbrough Hall, which is as much cut off from the world as is the North Pole, and was treated as a prisoner. I was in a most humiliating position—I was a sort of prince consort. My wife at first allowed me £150 ($750) a year, but afterward she cut that down to £50 ($250), then she raised it to £100 ($500). During three years of married life I have had £54 ($270) and have worked hard all the time."

Pastor Smith, who shared a stateroom with Sherard on the voyage to Jamaica, testified that he never saw him under the influence of drink.

LUSITANIA GAMBLERS GET $14,000 IN GAME

Poker Profits in Play on Board
Run as High as $1000 an Hour.

NEW YORK, May 26.—There was fat picking for two professional gamblers who came over on the Lusitania, in today. One passenger reported that in four days the gamblers picked up $14,000 and that one of their victims lost $1000 in an hour.

"I've lived almost all my life in parts of the West," said this passenger, "where gambling is wide open, but I never saw such quick action at poker. Play usually began in the smoking room at 11 o'clock at night and lasted until 3 or 4 in the morning. The pigeons could evidently afford their plucking and as it was none of my business I didn't interfere."

The steamship officers keep a sharp lookout for professional gamblers, but occasionally an unknown cavalier of fortune makes a smashing coup.

We Are Makers of Fine Clothes

And Sell Them Direct to You

THE middleman, with his expenses and profits, is entirely eliminated and the saving goes to you. That is why our clothing values are so much better. Come and see our tailoring establishment, which is located on the upper floors of our building. Then you will appreciate what a wonderful organization we are maintaining and why we hold such a unique position in the clothing field.

THE great advantage we have over the retailer who depends upon manufacturers for his supply is reflected in every suit we sell, and you have no way of judging the style, quality or the standard of our clothing unless you come and make a thorough inspection. $10 Suits here are not the average $10 Suits by any means. The same applies to the $12.50, $15, $18, $20 and $25 lines. At every price we offer you a much greater value—due entirely to the fact that we make the clothes we sell and save you the middleman's profits.

Come and See What a Fine Suit $15 Will Buy

WE want you to take a look at the Schmitz & Schroder $15 Suits—not because they are comparatively greater values than our other lines—but because you know that $15 will not buy, under ordinary circumstances, clothes of high character, made up of fine wool materials. That is why you will be able to appreciate more fully the Schmitz & Schroder $15 values—because they are Suits of the highest character—designed by artists—and made by experienced tailors of very fine materials in the prevailing shades and mixtures as well as the staple fabrics and colors. These Suits will serve to demonstrate to you just what we mean when we say that you save the middleman's expense and profit when you buy here, and we believe that you will agree with us that such a saving is worth considering.

The American Woman

What Are Her Aims Future and Characteristics?

A Series of Articles on Whether She Is Drifting, Done for the Post-Dispatch by Leading Women Thinkers.

"We are too much absorbed in living a life of pleasure. It is a mania with a danger," says Kate Douglas Wiggin, concerning the American woman.

This is the latest of many thousand slaps at the woman who lives on the western side of the Atlantic. Few of the criticisms agree.

Representative women have given the Post-Dispatch their ideas of the query: "WHAT IS THE REAL AMERICAN WOMAN?"

By Mrs. William Grant Brown.

THE American woman has been passing through a period of foolish frivolity. But I believe that she is through with it and that at present she is a most excellent citizen, who takes herself and her world neither too flippantly nor too seriously. Moreover, she is developing a real personal originality and independence.

Mrs. William Grant Brown, president of the New York Federation of Women's Clubs, gave this favorable verdict on the American woman.

"In the first place," began Mrs. Brown, "the New York woman is not the American woman. The New York woman is in a class by herself. She is too much devoted to pleasure and self-gratification. She does wear absurd clothes, and she does paint and make up to a ridiculous and indeed revolting degree. She is silly and brainless and selfish but not for one moment to be confused with the American woman."

"The latter is the home woman. She is her husband's chum. Europeans say that she brings up her children badly, but they overlook the fact that we are aiming at a different ideal. As a clever woman observed the other day, the family in the United States is or ought to be a republic, not a despotism, or even an absolute monarchy."

"She is only devoted to pleasure in the sense that she gets pleasure out of nearly everything. She has an abiding interest in the simplest things. Even her duties and responsibilities are eagerly accepted. Her mind is clean and her tastes are simple."

"She enjoys the quiet, homely pleasures—flowers, music, books. She is finding an interest in civic matters, the housekeeping of the community in which she lives, even if she avoids the suffrage issue. It seems to me she's a pretty good citizen."

EDUCATION has done wonders for her, of course," continued Mrs. Brown.

"Then you don't agree with the critics who call us only half-taught, near-cultured?" asked Marguerite Moore-Marsden.

"Indeed I do not. The average American woman is really well-educated and well-read."

"Moreover, besides her general culture, the vocational and trade schools are making it possible for her to know how to do at least one thing perfectly. The urgent necessity for self-support taught many women exact and systematic knowledge before the opening of the schools."

"We all want to work. Almost every woman of wealth and leisure is going in for some tangible, definite labor. She has at least some pet philanthropy."

"The American woman is undoubtedly the most adaptable person on the face of the globe."

"Most of us in the big cities live on shelves, for apartments are nothing else. But somehow or other our women contrive to give the home feeling to the few small rooms. That's because we are sensible and know how to make the most of our opportunities."

NO women in any other country have such a servant problem to struggle with. None have to face such kaleidoscopic changes of fortune. We solve the one and survive the other, and I should like to see the men do a better job."

"And we are becoming original and independent. Take just the matter of dress. The women's magazines are nearly all running departments of American fashions. A great many women who go abroad every year will tell you that they buy all their clothes in America."

The dressmakers say more and more women are refusing to wear the most stylish garments if they are freakish and unbecoming. There's independence for you."

"There are people who say that the American woman is too conceited," Mrs. Marshall suggested. "They assert that she craves compliments like candy and swallows both with equal readiness."

"Whenever a man addresses a meeting of women and spends his time telling them how beautiful they look, they all go home wondering if he is as big a fool as he thinks they are," Mrs. Brown asserted hotly.

"It would be every bit as sensible for a woman to address an assemblage of men and take up the evening in exclaiming—"

The DAY OF THE SWEET GIRL GRAD.

Love and Courtesy

Written for the Post-Dispatch By Sophie Irene Loeb

TO be or not to be, that is the question. Whether it is wise to don the cap and gown and the white creation with its ruffles and frills is a perplexing problem as the days near the END of things, or rather, the BEGINNING. For graduation is but COMMENCEMENT.

While throughout the land the air will vibrate with "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy," "Through the Summit to the Stars," "I Came, I Saw, I Conquered," "No Steps Backward," etc., etc., joyous time for the dear girl grad.

Hope beats high in the heart of her and becomes CONTAGIOUS. The family enthusiasm is WARM and all the world smiles WITH her. It is good. No one, no matter how poor or lowly, may not have the little qualms of not looking just like the other girl, which are not easily overcome at her age. The simple, neat, plain is always the most beautiful, anyway. The fine clothes, flowers and ribbons mean nothing in the summing up of "who's who and what's what" as test of brain and brawn.

So that the dear girl "grad," who has worked wisely and well and may not AFFORD the fancies and fancies that perchance her girl heart craves, yet may have the comforting thought that even though she has not been measured for a fancy gown she has measured up to the mark that brought her to this momentous time.

She is the girl who most often gets the fine plum in the matter of a position, even though she may not have the flowing plume on her hat.

What Presents to Accept. MY dear young girls, do not accept valuable presents from young men.

If you are engaged to marry a man it is quite another matter. He may give you any gift he pleases or can afford, regardless of its cost. But if you are not engaged to a man the gifts he may present to you with propriety are limited.

My dears, you may accept candy or flowers and books, but that is all. I realize that it may seem a silly conventionality to some of you girls, but when you are older you will understand the wisdom of it.

You do not need to be rude in refusing more valuable gifts. Indeed, a man who is at all worth while will understand and respect you for it.

It is hard, I know, my dears, but when a man does send you a gift which is quite expensive, there is only one thing for you to do; which is to return it to him.

They Quarreled. R. J. Writes: "I wrote my sweetest a very unkind note, saying I did not care for her any more. She did not reply to it. Now I am sorry I wrote it. What shall I do?"

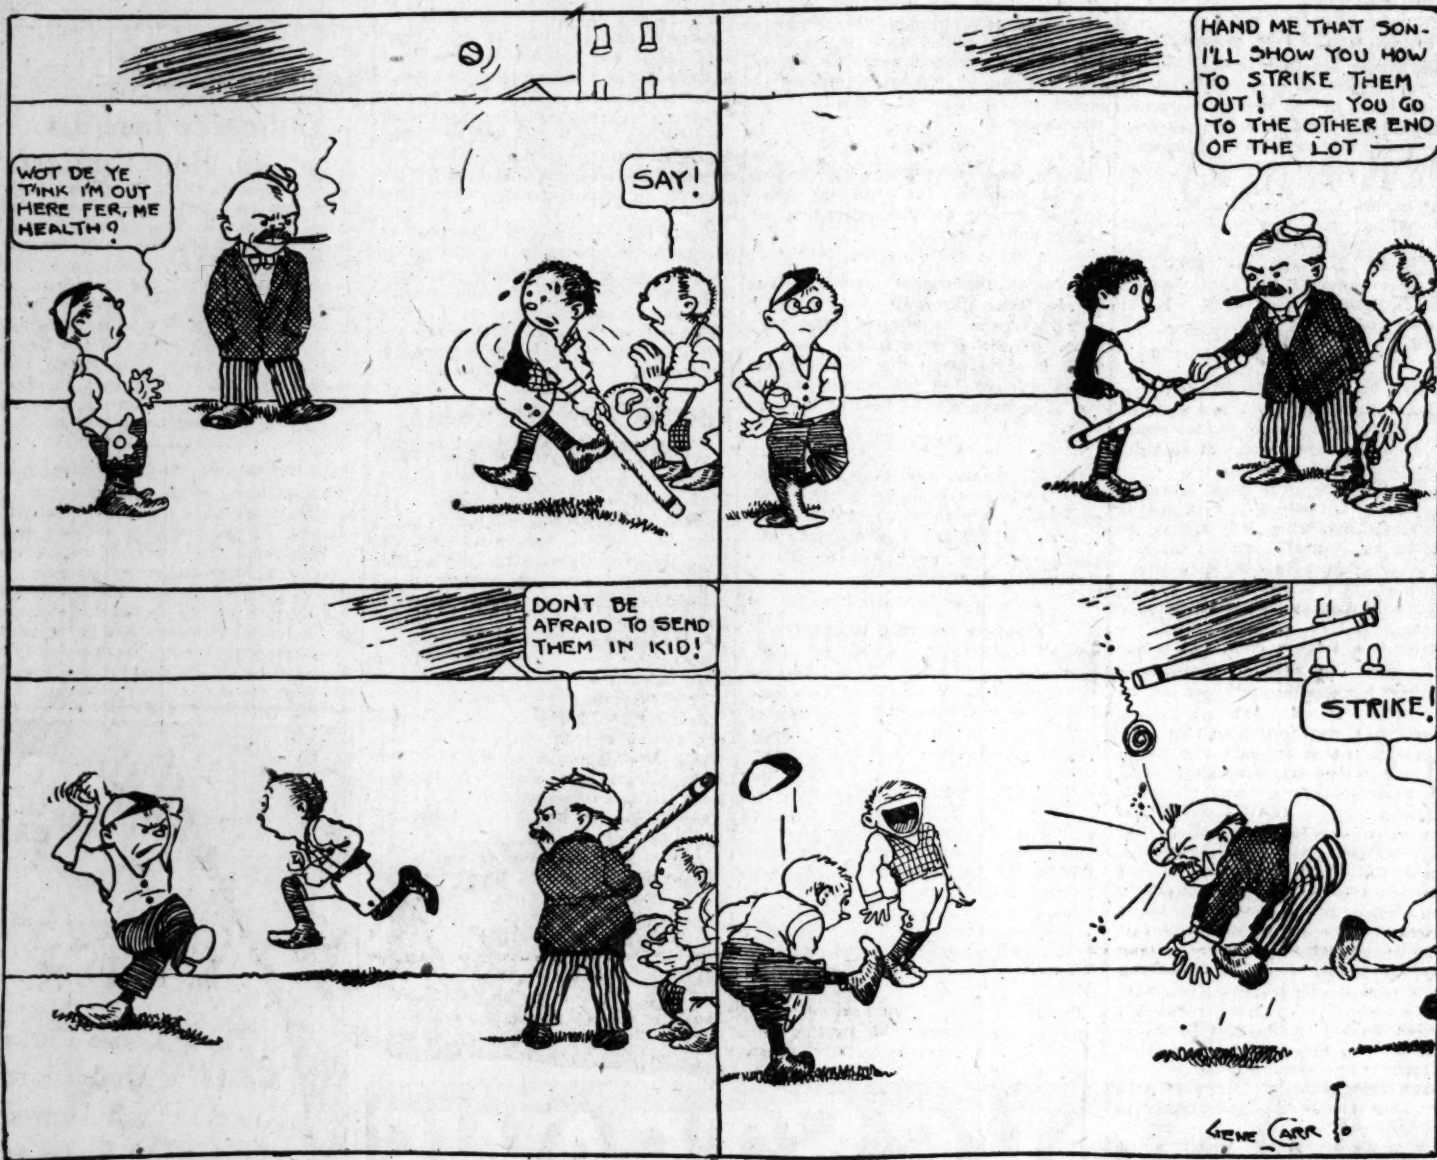

Write and apologize for your behavior. And be less hasty next time.

Willie Jarr's Suit

It Proves Not to be a Scout Uniform, but He Is Not Wholly at the Gang's Mercy.

Written for the Post-Dispatch By Roy L. McCardell.

COME on, fellows! Willie Jarr's got a scout suit!" At these tidings, conveyed by the almost breathless Johnny Rangle, Master Iszy Slavinsky and Gussie Bepler, who, as a butcher's son, was popularly supposed to eat inordinate quantities of meat and to be of extreme strength and staid prowess in consequence.

"Now what?" asked Master Jarr, condescending to notice the argument over the weird costume he was wearing.

"Now, a scout suit and a cowboy suit ain't the same," said Johnny Rangle.

"You fellows ain't got none, anyway," said Master Jarr with an air of great superiority.

"Sure, I don't want any!" said Master Slavinsky, with great disdain. "What I want is full evening dress, like my big brother Sidney has when he sings at the moving pictures every day."

"I wouldn't have a cowboy suit, either," said Johnny Rangle, scoffingly.

"I'm going to join the boy scouts," said Master Jarr, with a look of great determination.

"Sure," said little Iszy Slavinsky, "a cowboy he is out of date. My big brother, Sidney, says that them cowboy pictures is played out in the nickel-odeons. What they wants is the gentleman what murders people stylish in full evening dress."

"Aw, I guess you fellows is only scare 'cause you ain't got any cowboy suits!" he said finally.

"For me, I would never wear them!" said Master Slavinsky. "Would you, Gussie?"

Master Bepler, who was a stolid, slow witted boy, and, in consequence, supposed to think much because he said little (and in that yet more greatly take after the great man whose name-sake he was), regarded the cowboy outfit dully, and then remarked that prize-fighters didn't wear 'em.

"And Gussie is going to be a prize-fighter, ain't you, Gussie?" asked Master Rangle. "That's why he is always butting his head against brick walls to make it hard. Ain't you, Gussie?"

Gussie shook his head slowly, but, as though resolved not to betray his training secrets, did not reply.

"We is all going to be boy scouts," said Master Slavinsky. "Then you can't join our gang."

This last was addressed to Master Jarr.

"I'll be a boy scout, too!" declared young Jarr. "My father will get me a boy scout suit, too, and he's going to take me to the ball game some day."

This was too much grandeur to be flouted altogether, and the critics ceased from jibing.

"But you gotta have a dollar of your own in the savings bank to be a boy scout," said Iszy Slavinsky. "I got $11 by the bank already, and I can be a captain."

"I got money in MY bank, too," said Master Jarr stoutly.

He had 17 cents.

"But you got to have a dollar what you earned," continued Master Slavinsky, who had evidently studied up on the boy scout question. "It's got to be earned honestly. You can't swipe lead pipe and sell it and get in."

"How you going to earn it, Iszy?" asked Master Rangle.

"Bottles is the best way," said Iszy after some reflection.

"Bottles?" chorused the others.

"Sure!" said the youthful financier. "Don't you get two cents when you take back the big ginger ale bottles, and don't you get five cents for them soda water seltzer siphers?"

He meant siphers, but they understood him.

"But best of all is when you have the magnesium bottles to take back to the drug stores," added Iszy. "Them's good for five cents."

"But it takes a lot to make a dollar, don't it?" asked Master Rangle.

"Sure, it does!" said Master Slavinsky. "What we got to do is to catch some sickness and cry for magnesium and ginger ale and siphers of seltzer soda water, and hide the bottles till we get well."

So the candidates for scoutship started on the quest for illness at once, scarier fever being reported rife in the next street.

Forewarned.

Why Society Women Have Pretty Faces

"How often so many of us admire the beautiful complexion of society women and wonder why," writes Mae Martyn, authority on beauty matters, in the Boston Post. "Their good looks and pretty faces are generally the result of the greatest care and precaution in using beautifying preparations."

"The day is passed when powder finds favor with the knowing ones. It has been found to clog up the pores and cause rough, sallow complexions. If instead of powder women generally would use a simple, inexpensive lotion made by dissolving four ounces spumax in one-half pint of water with two teaspoonfuls of glycerine added, the matter of beautiful, charming faces would soon come to be a common thing."

"This lotion clears and beautifies the skin as no other preparation will. It does not show like powder or rub off so easily and for taking away that shiny, oily, sallow look is unequalled."—ADV.

A Relapse.

LITTLE Arthur was very proud of his membership in the "band of mercy." He wore the badge, a small star, as if he were a policeman's insignia, and could often be heard reproving the other boys for their cruel treatment of dogs and cats. But one day a lady of the neighborhood was astonished to find him in the very act of tormenting the cat most cruelly. She protested. "Why, Arthur, what are you doing? I thought you belonged to the 'band of mercy.'"

"I did," he said, "but I lost my star."—Metropolitan Magazine.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. Albert W. Kahl, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I have used Castoria in my practice for the past 26 years. I regard it as an excellent medicine for children."

Dr. Gustave A. Eisengraeber, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "I have used your Castoria repeatedly in my practice with good results, and can recommend it as an excellent, mild and harmless remedy for children."

Dr. E. J. Dennis, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have used and prescribed your Castoria in my sanitarium and outside practice for a number of years and find it to be an excellent remedy for children."

Dr. S. A. Buchanan, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria in the case of my own baby and find it pleasant to take, and have obtained excellent results from its use."

Dr. J. E. Simpson, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."

Dr. R. E. Eskildson, of Omaha, Neb., says: "I find your Castoria to be a standard family remedy. It is the best thing for infants and children I have ever known and I recommend it."

Dr. L. R. Robinson, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria certainly has merit. Is not its age, its continued use by mothers through all these years, and the many attempts to imitate it, sufficient recommendation? What can a physician add? Leave it to the mothers."

Dr. Edwin F. Pardee, of New York City, says: "For several years I have recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

Dr. N. B. Sizer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I object to what are called patent medicines, where maker alone knows what ingredients are put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use."

CARDINALS MAKE BEST RECORD IN
SECTIONAL GAMES

Roger's Road Performance Surpasses Work of Fifteen Rival League Teams.

CLUB HOME ON SATURDAY

Hurrah Welcome Will Be Given Bresnahan at First Cubs' Contest.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—The joyful Cardinals pulled out of this city last night for St. Louis the happiest lot of ball tossers that ever left here for the Mount City.

With 11 victories to only four defeats for this visit to the Eastern cities Bresnahan's boys made the best record of any of the 16 teams during the first inter-sectional series of the major League campaign.

The Cardinals' playing has fairly staggered the East and the critics here are unanimous in declaring that the team is 50 per cent stronger than it was last season, and that none of the teams seen here this season played better ball than St. Louis.

One result of the club's victorious trip is that the players have had the pleasure of seeing their pictures in the papers. Nearly every member of the team, veteran and juvenile, has had his picture in the sheets here this week.

Alexander, the young pitching "phenom" of the Phillies, gets into a strike-out mood occasionally and fans the side in an inning. "Alexander the Great" did this yesterday, his victims being Smith, Ellis and Konechey. During Pittsburgh's visit here, Alexander fanned Clarke, Wagner and Miller on the same turn at bat.

Fought to the End.
The Cardinals refused to admit defeat in their final game of the trip, even after two men were out in the ninth inning. Then, with four runs needed to tie the score, Mowrey hit to Doolan and Mike was safe when the shortstop threw the ball a trifle wide. Oakes fanned a single to center. Alexander got Bresnahan, two strikes and three balls, and then "grooved" one. Bresnahan put his full strength into the swing and the ball shot past Walsh at a mile-a-minute gait. The walk scored Mowrey and Oakes, and netted the Cardinal leader a two-bagger.

Bliss batted for Steele, but he was too impatient and swung at the first ball pitched, which was a little wide of the plate, with the result that he sent a little fly to Luderus and the game was over.

Fruitt, a southpaw from Howard College, at Birmingham, Ala., reported to Manager Doolan yesterday. Fruitt is only 19 years of age, but he is about 6 feet 4 inches high. He looked so good at Birmingham that he was signed at that time.

MYERS' RELEASEFirst Sacker Turned Back to Boston Had Done Well for Browns.

The National Commission will probably be asked to decide the ownership of First Baseman Ralph Myers. Manager Wallace of the Browns announced Thursday that he had turned the lanky fellow back to the Boston Red Sox.

However, Manager Patsy Donovan of the Boston team declined to take the player, claiming that he had been with the Browns longer than the 10 days named in the optional agreement under which he was obtained from the Red Sox.

Just why Myers was released by Manager Wallace is puzzling to the fans. The former Louisville first baseman had made a good showing here and proved that he was a far more valuable man than any player who has done duty on the first cushion for the Browns this season. He is a superior baseman to Newman and Criss, and while he is not a hitter of Criss' caliber, he managed to bat just a trifle less than 300 during his stay here. He made only a few errors and no mistakes.

President Hedges says he doesn't know who will be the first baseman. "We may spring a surprise," was his only comment. That probably means that Hedges is dicker for some first sacker.

MISS HOTCHKISS TO DEFEND HER TITLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 26.—Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, who was graduated last week from the University of California College of Social Sciences, will defend her title as champion woman tennis player of the United States this year. She will leave Berkeley for the East on June 2, go first to Chicago to take part in the western championships, and later to Philadelphia, where she will defend her title against the winner of the all-comers' tournament for women.

No Game Here Today.
There is no baseball game in St. Louis Friday. This is an open date in the schedule.

Other Clubs Want Browns' Undesirables, but Will Offer No Talent in Exchange.

BAILEY ON THE MARKET

"Lefty" George, Dan Hoffman and Jimmy Murray Are Also Slated for Transfers.

WHILE President Hedges and Manager Wallace of the Browns are eager to let certain members of the team pass along to other clubs, they are unable to obtain anything but cash in exchange for the undesirables. The Browns are overstocked with talent, but players asked in trade have been refused.

Some competition, not very lively, is going on for the services of Bill Bailey, a southpaw whom everybody says has ability, but who can't show it as a member of the Browns. Bailey has tried for years to prove that he is a good pitcher, but has failed. As the new men are finding their level—a low one—daily.

Other managers believe Bailey is of major league caliber and are holding him up. While they want the pitcher, they are unwilling to let any talent come this way for William. President Hedges tried to land outfielder Shaller of the Tigers, who led the Three-I League hitters after Paul Melan graduated last season. Manager Jennings was willing to pay cash for Bill, but wouldn't trade any players for him.

Farrell Offered $1500.
When the Yankees of New York were in St. Louis recently, an effort was made to unload Bailey on the New York club. President Farrell told Mr. Hedges that Manager Chase was willing to take a chance with the southpaw. He said, however, that he would not turn over any New York player in exchange, but would give $1500, the waiver price, for Bill.

"Lefty" George's poor showing in practically every out with the exception of his game against the Cardinals, has been a failure, and it is on the boards for this fellow to slip by. George hasn't shown anything to indicate that he is a pitcher of major league caliber. Waiters have been asked on him and while he may depart from the Browns, it is probable that he will not be permitted to get out of the League.

George's failure to make good is one of the many mysteries of baseball. Probably no player was so highly touted as this young southpaw. As a member of the York (Tri-State League) team and Indianapolis (American Association) team last season, he was picked by everyone who saw him as a sensation.

McAleer Wants George.
Sixteen big league clubs drafted the pitcher last season. When Hedges won him in the draw he was considered a very lucky individual. But George hasn't shown a single thing to indicate that he is a big leaguer. President Watkins of the Indianapolis (American Association) team, when in St. Louis a few days ago, wanted to arrange for George's return to the Indians. However, Manager McAleer of the Nationals, when in St. Louis, said he believed George was a good pitcher and would take the southpaw off Wallace's hands if he got a chance. So Mr. George may be sent to Taftville in a few days. But McAleer will give no players in exchange.

Danny Hoffman and Jimmy Murray are others ready for a transfer. Hoffman has been crowded out of a regular berth by youngsters. There is still probably a bit of good baseball left in Hoffman, but he will not show it here. Manager Wallace has more outfielders than he can use, and unless the Cleveland club holds Dan because of the crippled condition of the Naps at present, the Bridgeport person is due to slip to the minors.

Manager Jimmy Burke of the Indianapolis club wants Jimmy Murray. James needs hitters and Irish ballplayers, as his club is composed mostly of Germans, who do not fight as much as Burke desires. The North St. Louis boy believes Murray will hit in the Association as he did last season and is ready to take the life-saver off Wallace's hands. Murray will probably be transferred to Indianapolis before long.

"WHITE HOPES" TO MEET IN TOURNAMENT
NEW YORK, May 26.—Twenty-three heavy-weight boxers from various parts of the country will be the contestants at the National Sporting Club here tonight in a novel "white hope" tournament.

The purpose of the bouts is to discover among the unknowns who some time may be considered worthy to face Jack Johnson for the title.

Speaker Rejoins Red Sox.
The Speaker, the sensational center fielder of the Red Sox, rejoined the Boston team in St. Louis Thursday and departed with his teammates for the East. Although still hobbling as the result of an injured foot, Speaker got in the fray long enough to bat in the winning run against the Browns, acting as pinch hitter for Larry Page.

TIGERS' FANGS DRAWN.
In the Washington series Hughey Jennings may read his fate. It took the life of his club to get an even break, and the club had to have a few of Dame Fortune's gifts to do even that well. Considering that the Washington club is about the worst in the league, at present, this weak display ought to impel Hughey to look to his fences.

And it's well for Detroit the team got away to good start this year. That eight games or so of lead will enable the club to rest up its tired pitching hands, and, perhaps, get a new lease on life.

EVEN MULLIN IS WEAK.
The Tigers are in a wretched shape, and despite the native strength of the team in the run-getting line, its fingers are, right now, in such desperate form that it seems impossible the club can remain many weeks longer in the lead. Mullin has won a number of games, but is pitching wretched ball. Willett has not been himself since he threw out his arm in a St. Louis game. Donovan can hardly be expected to amount to much; Works is just an ordinary hired hand, and the new men are finding their level—a low one—daily.

SOX IN THE ASCENDANT.
CHARLES COMISKY has now the best team in the West, due mainly to exactly the sort of strength that Detroit lacks—pitchers.

The further the race goes, however, the more one is inclined to believe that the Philadelphia club will simply be galloping by, August. Mack's pitchers are just beginning to find themselves, and henceforth Coombs, Plank, Bender, Morgan and Krause should all be good winners.

Detroit is a mighty club; but it can hardly stand up with its main point of defense crumbling.

GOOD-A-BY, MR. MURPHY.
ONE fighter is eliminated from the lightweight championship race—Tommy Murphy. To the country at large he was never considered seriously as a championship factor, although in the East he was well esteemed.

Just now the sign of the bulldog is in the ascendant, in the boxing world. The men who have the best chance to earn the crown are those of the Wolf or Knockout Brown type—men who can endure as well as punish. On this basis Wolgast ought to eliminate Owen Moran and Packey McFarland, when he meets them in finish fights.

Donovan? Well, you never hear of anyone mentioning Pat making any deals. It's always Taylor who figures.

Wallace Is Badly Crippled.
Manager Wallace of the Browns is badly crippled. He has been hit by ugly bouncers and rollers so often in the last few days that he walks with difficulty. The little Scot retired after the seventh inning of Thursday's game and sent Eddie Hallinan to shortstop. Wallace will resume his place Saturday.

WEST HAS CHANCE
IN TRACK GAMES

Michigan Athletes Compete in Elimination Tests at Harvard Stadium.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 26.—Athletes from 25 Eastern colleges, at Harvard Stadium, today struggled through the processes of elimination for the championship events tomorrow of the Intercollegiate Athletic Association's twenty-sixth annual track and field meeting. Preliminary heats were held today in all the track events except the mile and two-mile runs and trials were held in all the field events.

Whether it will be Cornell, Pennsylvania, Michigan or Yale which tomorrow will total the greatest number of points will be largely decided by the number of athletes which each college in today's tests. It is among these four colleges that experts pick the winner, in that order of preference.

Today's competitions were planned to complete the dashes and hurdles to the semifinal stage, reduce the field in the 440-yard dash to nine and that in the half-mile to somewhat more than a dozen.

In the field events five men were to qualify for final competition, the marks made by the men in the shot put, hammer and broad jump counting toward the deciding points of tomorrow, while the performances in the high jump and pole vault were merely for purposes of elimination.

"BOOK" ON BASEBALL
OPENED AT MEMPHIS

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 26.—That a general attempt has been made to undertake wholesale bookmaking on major and minor league baseball games was indicated here yesterday, when odds were openly posted on results of all American, National and Southern League games.

Special prices were provided when requests were made, but $1 to $1.50 was offered that the public could not pick four winners in any one League.

This follows a report that bookmakers, formerly well known on the race tracks, had opened a general agency at Hot Springs, Ark., for the purpose of laying odds on baseball games.

Little business was done locally.

"Knockout" Brown's
Victory Brings Him
Nothing but Glory

NEW YORK, May 26.—There was not a dollar in his victory over Tommy Murphy for Brown except glory. He did not receive a cent for his efforts. In order to make Murphy keep his agreement to box, Danny Morgan, manager of Brown, gave "Flatbush Tommy" $3000 at 3 o'clock p. m.

"I am content to take what's left," said Dan, "even though it be but half a loaf."

But by the time the men entered the ring there was not even the half a loaf; only a stale biscuit. The turnout was the poorest of the entire winter. Not more than $3000 was paid for reservations.

As the expenses of the club were heavy for printing and many other accessories for the bout, Morgan's generous treatment of Murphy cost him a large sum.

NEW YORK, May 26.—More than $67,000 has been expended to date for seats by those wishing to see the international polo matches. The demand for accommodations on the field at Meadowbrook, L. I., for the series of three contests for the international challenge cup between the Hurlingham four from England and the Meadowbrook defenders, beginning on Wednesday, May 31, has been so great that carpenters have been put to work erecting new stands and boxes.

He was carried to the Browns' clubhouse and treated. While he is a pretty sick man, Manager Wallace is hopeful that Paul will be able to make the trip with the team to Detroit Friday night.

HOPS QUOTATIONS ADVANCE 3 CENTS

Oregon Crop Is Backward and Small, With the Visible Supply Almost Exhausted.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 26.—The market for the new crop of Oregon hops has advanced three cents a pound. A dealer has contracted for the 1911 crop at 25 cents.
The market here is rising rapidly because of the expected shortage in the world's crop.
Only 236 bales of last year's crop is left in Oregon. The Oregon crop is backward and is not likely to reach last year's crop of 92,500 bales.
Well-informed hop men do not believe the total American crop will equal home requirements, and say that exportations are out of the question.

TWO TEAMS TIED IN POST-DISPATCH LEAGUE FOR FIRST

Penrose and Fanning Clubs Win From the Ashlands and Madisons.

DECIDING GAME JUNE 3

One Legged Catcher of Ashland Team Gets Rose Bouquet When He Goes to Bat.

Standing of Clubs in Baseball League
Team	W.	L.	Pct.	Runs
Fanning	10	4	.714	1,000
Penrose	10	4	.714	1,000
Ashland	9	5	.643	900
Madison	9	5	.643	900

Results of Thursday's Games.
Penrose 8, Ashland 2.
Fanning 6, Madison 2.

A bouquet of American Beauty roses was presented to Earl Schurr, the one-legged catcher of the Ashland school team, as he went to bat in the first inning of the Ashland-Penrose game at Athletic Park Thursday afternoon in the Post-Dispatch Public School Baseball League.

Six hundred juvenile fans, principals and teachers cheered as Earl blushed, made a bow and accepted the flowers. Schurr then faced the pitcher and, following the baseball custom of all time for recipients of gifts—struck out.

The Penrose team defeated the Ashlands, 8 to 2. The Fannings beat the Madisons, 6 to 3, in an excellent game at the Triple A grounds in Forest Park.

This makes a tie for the pennant and gold medals between the Penrose and Fanning teams. Neither nine has lost a game this season. They will meet June 3 in the final game of the series to decide the championship of the St. Louis public schools.

Fifty Girls Are Rooters.
Fifty girls of the Penrose School wore Penrose banners and cheered their favorites in the game at Athletic Park.

Fifty girls of the Ashland School carried flags and Post-Dispatch banners won in former years by that school, and cheered lustily when the Ashlands made good plays. At the conclusion of the game the Ashland girls showed a spirit of true sportsmanship when they announced that they will attend the coming game between the Penrose and the Fanning teams, and boost the Penrose boys for the championship.

The final game will be a battle between the North and South Ends. The place of the game will be printed in the Post-Dispatch early next week. No games are scheduled for Saturday, as that is the day of the public school field meet.

The crowd at Athletic Park went wild when Granville McCormack, catcher for the Penroses, hit to the center field fence for a home run and started a batting rally in the third inning which netted three runs.
The Ashland rooters had a chance to yell—and they yelled—when Roy Pierce drew a base on balls, and Ellis Leach brought him home with a two-bagger.

They cheered again when Keeney, shortstop of the Ashlands, made doubles in successive innings. Leach made two two-baggers in the game and a spectacular catch of a foul by running to the left field bleachers.

Thomas Gallagher, pitcher for the Penrose team, struck out 14 batters and allowed seven hits. Pierce and Joe Hollis, pitchers for the Ashlands, struck out seven, and gave eight safe hits.

Fanning's First Baseman Star.
Duke Torrence, first baseman for the Fannings, was a star in the Fanning-Madison game. He knocked a home run in the second inning. Elton Myhre made two safe hits in three times at bat. Earl Walker, pitcher for the Fannings, struck out 15 batters and allowed only three hits. John Doepfle made several good stops at short and cut off runs by the Madisons. John Brock, pitcher for the Madisons, struck out 10.

The game was called by the umpire in the ninth inning. He awarded the game to the Fannings when Brock, the Madison pitcher, refused to leave the field when ordered from the game after using offensive language in questioning a decision of the umpire. Principal Witter of the Bryan Hill school umpired the game.
The game was scheduled to be played at South End Park, but when it was found that the park was occupied the schools agreed to play at the Triple A grounds.

CUT OFF HIS LEG, LIVED NINE YEARS

Farmer Prolonged Life by Operation Against Advice of His Doctors.

YORK, Pa., May 26.—Charles A. Siegmans, 84 years old, a well-to-do German carpenter, died at the home of his niece here today. Nine years ago he performed a rare surgical operation upon himself by removing a gangrenous leg and thereby prolonging his life.
He was advised against an operation because of his advanced age. Siegmans insisted upon having the limb removed. A short time later his niece found a portion of the leg, which he had sawed off, hidden in his room.
He had crudely bound up the stump, which soon healed.

BATHING MIDDIES FARMER'S TARGET

ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 26.—Still bearing the scars of scores of birdshot which the naval surgeons had picked from their faces, backs and arms, Midshipmen C. J. McReavy and T. C. Sowell today went before Police Justice John M. Davis and swore out a warrant against William Collins, who fired both barrels of a shotgun at them. Collins is charged with assault with intent to maim.

McReavy and Sowell were canoeing in their bathing suits and had stopped for a swim near Collins' shore. He warned them off, and then got a gun and returned and fired upon them from a distance.

Just a Pointer: Let the Next Cotton Belt Route Excursion Take You Southwest!

You ought to see the Southwest. No matter how much you have heard of it, read of it, thought of it, only seeing can make you fully realize your opportunity there. A tour through the best sections of the Southwest, via St. Louis-Southwestern Ry. & St. Louis-Southwestern Ry. of Texas (Cotton Belt Route) will not only be a comfortable and enjoyable trip, but will enable you to choose first hand, the chance that holds out most to you. The Southwest is on the eve of its greatest development. Locating there now will give you the immeasurable advantages of its rapid growth and all the opportunities that this rapid growth will bring.

Low Fares June 6th and 20th.

On these dates you can make a trip Southwest at much less than regular fare; and you have the privilege of stopping off at any point any time, without extra charge. The ticket gives you 25 days to look around. If you will call, or write to E. G. Marsh, C. P. & T. A.,

211 North Eighth Street, St. Louis, or write to the undersigned, full facts about the cost of ticket from your home town, schedule, etc., will be given you.

Complete Passenger Service

The principal cities and sections of the Southwest are within easy reach of St. Louis, via Cotton Belt Route—the quick and direct line to Arkansas and Texas. It operates two splendid trains daily from St. Louis, leaving at 9:30 a. m., and 10:30 p. m.—equipped with the finest modern through sleepers, chair cars and parlor cafe cars. (Low fare excursion tickets are good on these first-class trains, on all excursion dates.)

Farm and Business Opportunities

Whether you are seeking a good farm, a business opening or an industrial location this department can be of great help to you. The Colonization Department publishes elaborately illustrated and interestingly written books covering every phase of agricultural opportunity Southwest. These books are free. If you have not made up your mind just where to go, they can be of great help to you in deciding. Any one or all of the following will be sent to you, if you will write to any of the undersigned, or call at the 211 N. 8th St. office, St. Louis: "Texas," "Arkansas," "Profitable Products of East Texas," "The Rise of Rice in Arkansas" and "The Fertile St. Francis Valley."

The Industrial Department is in close touch with the business openings Southwest in every city and section on the Cotton Belt's lines, and there is hardly any line of business or industry that is not badly needed and that would not have exceptional advantages at some point. This department can point out to you just where your particular line is most in demand and most likely to do best. Whether you are planning a factory or a retail store, it will pay you to consult Mr. Guy L. Stewart, Agric. & Industrial Agent, Pierce Bldg., St. Louis, or the undersigned.

Post-Dispatches Complete Record of Markets and Finance

PROFESSIONALS CONTROL THE
EASTERN MARKETTrading Is Quiet and Price Range Narrow on Leading Issues.

NEW YORK, May 26.—The market closed showing only small changes. There was buying in some issues and selling in others, but the floor traders guessing. Last prices generally showed small gains.

The market was irregular at the noon hour, with prices showing minor gains from Thursday's closing. The steel stocks were firm.

Speculation was professional when the stock market opened Friday. The price range was irregular. Some heavy offerings were made in steel, but they were well taken up.

The buying power in the London market was light before the local opening, and prices there on Americans were irregular. Foreigners are favoring the buying side of prices on the declines, but so far the demand has been disappointing.

The resignation of President Diaz and Vice-President Corral in Mexico was well received in Wall street as it is believed that this sound the death knell of the rebellion, it may be some little time before absolute peace is restored, but at least the masses as well as the insurance, have got what they were striving for.

Trade reports continue to reflect uncertainty and the announcement that the Steel Corporation will meet the cut price made by independent producers only further complicates the situation. Nearly 300 coke ovens have been closed down in the Connellsville district. Copper trade reports show improvement and sales of metal have totaled over 75,000 pounds in the past 10 days.

Money continues active in all markets, and bond houses report an excellent demand for short-term issues. Indications are that the week's bank statement will make a favorable showing.

BANK CLEARINGS GAIN.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Dun's Review to-morrow will say:

Bank exchanges this week made a much more satisfactory comparison with recent preceding years for a long time past, the total at all leading cities of the United States aggregating $1,000,000,000, an increase of 8.6 per cent as compared with the corresponding week in 1910, and 10.6 per cent over the same week in 1909.

In part of the improvement is shown in the returns by New York City, which was the most favorable comparison may be due in part to more active operations in the local speculative markets than last year at that point, but it is much less than last week, whereas in all other cities the increase is 12 per cent, against 1.1 per cent. This clearly indicates a healthy condition of business operations. Among the outside centers, Baltimore, Louisville and Philadelphia all reported good gains over both years, that at New Orleans over a year ago being especially good.

On the other hand smaller exchanges than New York City, such as St. Louis, Cleveland, St. Paul and Kansas City, San Francisco also makes good gains over both years.

LONDON MARKET STEADY.

LONDON, May 26.—American securities opened about unchanged today. Later the market was steady, with values higher than yesterday's New York closing.

During the forenoon prices ranged from 100 to 110, with the market closing firm.

INVESTIGATION ABOUT HITCHCOCK'S CARPET

Committeemen Shake Heads
When They Hear Suite Furnishings Cost $7500.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The big red carpet in the office of Postmaster-General Hitchcock formed the excuse for a prolonged discussion by members of the House Committee on Expenditures in the Postoffice Department.

This is the committee that is inquiring into the operations of the postal service. Committeemen shook their heads disapprovingly when an admission was made by Chief Clerk Wood that the aforesaid red carpet was purchased in the open market.

Other members of the committee were astonished when Wood admitted that the refurbishing of the three immense rooms, which constitute Postmaster-General Hitchcock's suite in the department, cost $7500.

Pension for City Employees.
NEW YORK, May 26.—Old age pensions for park employees, street cleaners and other laborers in the employ of the city are proposed by Park Commissioner Stover. Payment of a full weekly wage to all laborers who reach 60 years or have been at work for 30 years continuously is proposed.

The Floor Finish That Will Not Mar

"Floor-Shine" Gives Greatest Luster
and Most Lasting Finish. Easy to Apply.

The Children At Play Won't Scratch
"Floor-Shine."

Whether your floors are old or new—painted or varnished—pine or hardwood—even if covered with linoleum—there is only ONE BEST finish for them and that is "FLOOR-SHINE." This is the original Colored Varnish and for 16 years has maintained its high excellence of quality. No other preparation has ever equaled "Floor-Shine" in any essential qualification. It will not gum or clog under the brush but flows freely and makes the work of applying it easier.

Soap and water—either hot or cold—does not affect it. Not only is "Floor-Shine" best for floors but also for Interior Woodwork, Furniture, Refrigerators, Porch and Lawn Furniture, Chandeliers, Front Doors, Flower Boxes and Iron Work.

If linoleum is given a coating of "Floor-Shine" it will not only be greatly improved in appearance but the wearing qualities will be much enhanced.

"Floor-Shine" comes to you ready for instant use and no experience whatever is necessary to properly use it. The variety of colors enables you to match any shade, or if you do not wish it in colors you can use the Transparent. "Floor-Shine" may be had in any sized can from one-fourth pint at 15 cents up to the gallon can at $2.50.

The quality is best and the price lowest. (The quart can for 75 cents is the most popular size.) All paint stores, hardware stores and dealers in painters' supplies sell "Floor-Shine"—but if you have any difficulty in obtaining it write to us for color card and we will see that you are supplied. Made only by Floor-Shine Mfg. Company, St. Louis, Mo.

PSYCHIC BARBER TELLS OF WOMAN CRAZED BY CULT

Testifies for Daughter of Mrs.
Ole Bull Who Is Trying to Break Latter's Will.

YOGI INFLUENCE CHARGED

Man's Story Given to Show Effect of Religion Embraced by Violinist's Wife.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ALFRED, Me., May 26.—Sherman L. Whipple, counsel for Mrs. Olea Bull Vaughan, the daughter of Ole Bull's widow, offered to prove that Mrs. Vaughan was driven from her home and her mother by the Yogi and members of other mystic cults of the Orient, and that they influenced Mrs. Bull against her daughter. That the testator, enthralled in a mesh of mysticism, must have been acting under a spell was the belief expressed by the contestant in a letter which Whipple caused to be read in court, despite the protests of Attorney Charles K. Cobb for the executors of Mrs. Bull's will, which practically cut off her daughter from a fortune of $500,000, which in part was bestowed upon a coterie of psychics.

On further cross-examination today the psychic barber, Nicolò Roberto, told how Mrs. Bull had given him $500 when he left her employ last June, but, he said, she considered it a gift to aid his relatives who had suffered by an earthquake in Italy.

Whipple then asked Roberto if he had brought with him from Italy a letter written to him by Mrs. Olea Bull Vaughan this spring. Roberto produced the letter. Attorney Whipple then read the letter, which was dated "Parker House, Boston, March 2, 1911," and was in part as follows:

"My Dear Mr. Roberto—I enclose a few newspaper clippings which will give you a slight idea of what I am undergoing here. My poor mother must have been entirely under the control of others for I feel sure that never in her own clear mind or of her own free will would she have consented to sign such a document as this will which Mr. Par-ker and my uncle have offered for probate.

"If the contest becomes necessary, would you be willing and able to come over to testify? I feel that your testimony about many things would be most valuable, because you were in a confidential relation with my mother and acquainted with the influences surrounding her. You will know the truth, and that is what we want to find out."

"Who, expressed to you the view that Mrs. Bull was abnormal or insane, as stated by you?" Whipple asked. Roberto answered:

"Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Thursty, Mrs. Bouchard, Mrs. Lieber, Prof. James, Mrs. Tatem of New York, Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Murray."

"When you were in Cambridge, how much of the time was there when Mrs. Bull did not have with her those who practiced Raja Yogi, or who were Swamis, or Japanese, or the followers of other Indian cults?"

"There was about one month in 1909 when Mrs. Bull was not surrounded by these people," said Roberto. "During that month Mrs. Briggs was there occasionally. Mrs. Vaughan was in West Lebanon, Me. Mrs. Vaughan telephoned and wrote to her mother, and sometimes Mrs. Bull would tell her she was not well enough to see her and at other times would not stay at her home when Mrs. Vaughan came, but would go to a hotel in Boston. Mrs. Bull saw her daughter a few times as the result of the latter's insistent demands."

Bound Hand and Foot.

Roberto told how he had cared for Miss Sarah G. Farmer in Portsmouth, N. H., after she had become crazed, he said, from practicing the weird rites of the Yogi. He described how he had found Miss Farmer bound hand and foot and released her.

Attorney Cobb produced a letter from Roberto to Mrs. Bull from Portsmouth under date of Jan. 23, 1909. Dr. Willis had suggested that Miss Farmer be sent to a sanitarium.

"It would be difficult to get a Yogi to take my place and get another caretaker, for it would cost much," Roberto wrote. "I have had a strenuous time with mental and physical suffering, occasionally to distraction."

"What do you mean by 'mental suffering'?" Cobb asked.

"I was up night and day with Miss Farmer without getting any sleep," Roberto answered.

"What do you mean by 'suffering occasionally to distraction'?"

"If you'd ever been around insane persons you'd know what I mean—no psychic control."

Held Her on a Couch.

Then Attorney Cobb continued to read from the letter: "The method of taking care of Miss Farmer has taken much of my vitality."

Asked to explain what he meant by that, Roberto said: "When I went to Portsmouth to take care of Miss Farmer they had her bound hand and foot during her violent spells. When I came I released her from these bonds. I cared for her unbound, and this necessitated constant attention on my part."
